

Index

- AACTE. See American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education
- AASCU. See American Association of State Colleges and Universities
- AAUP. See American Association of University Professors
- Abele, John, 27
- Academic Enrichment Center (at East Carolina University), 104–107
- academic freedom: and non-tenured faculty at Florida Gulf Coast University, 24; and anti-terrorism measures, 275–279; and muzzling of professors who are not on a tenure track, 285–286
- access: and distance learning, Western Governors University, 45–50; and WGU Indiana, 53; for minorities and lower-income groups, 115; curtailed, due to fee increases, enrollment restrictions in California, 135; and California Master Plan for Higher Education, 136, 138, 259; and California EDGE Campaign, 140; and South Carolina’s “performance indicators,” 143; for low-income students in Colorado, 155, 158, 159; and marginal success of HOPE scholarship program, 169; and Oregon Opportunity Grants, 175; to bachelor’s degree programs, under Kentucky reform legislation, 191; and Florida’s governance of public education, 200, 202; as a goal of Virginia higher education restructuring, 204, 205, 207; and need-based aid at University System of Maryland, 211; and effect of fee increases at California institutions, 217, 218, 220; and racial diversity at British institutions, 232, 235; and Obama administration policies, 251, 252, 254; and boost in funding for College Access Challenge Grants, 255; and social obligation, 260; as a lesser concern than completion of degree programs, 263, 265; and improving college readiness, degree-completion rates, 269; and loss of opportunity in U.S., 273; for foreign scholars, 277; and Higher Education Act of 1965, 297; and negative effect of merit-based financial aid, 298, 299; and attempt to simultaneously control costs, increase quality, 301; and West Virginia reforms, 305–307; as a virtual right in the public’s mind, 316; and growing concern over, 317, 318; and concerns among working families, 321; and growing stratification of institutions, 323. See also affordability, tuition
- accreditation: and St. John’s College, 4; and Frank Lloyd Wright School of Architecture, 9, 11, 12, 13; and Florida Gulf Coast University, 22, 24; and Olin College, 28; and Western Governors University, 46–49; of degree-granting programs in South Carolina, 143; of American InterContinental University, 254; and postsecondary preparation, 266
- ACE. See American Council on Education
- Achievement Council, 58
- ACT (American College Testing) test, and: Berea College applicants, 16; male enrollment figures, 116, 118; South Carolina institutions, 144; assessment of senior-year learning, 263, 264; multiple choice format, 265; college-readiness benchmarks, 267; remedial education, 267; basis for scholarships in Arkansas, 298
- Adams State College, in Alamosa, Colorado, 153, 158
- Adams, Ron, 178
- Adelman, Clifford, 264
- admissions: at Frank Lloyd Wright School of Architecture, and standards, 12; committee, Berea College, 14; standards, and high school curriculum, El Paso Collaborative for Academic Excellence, 59; and teacher education, standards, 69; counselors at East Carolina University, 108; and declining male enrollments, 118; restrictions, and controlling enrollment in California, 135, 139; standards in Colorado, 156; and “Core 40” curriculum in Indiana, 178; at Florida community colleges, standards, 214; and early applications to California public universities, 218; in California, and stricter enforcement of standards, 220; preference for higher-paying foreign students at British universities, 231; and Obama administration policy on bonuses, 252; process, and high school seniors, 263–266; criteria, and college readiness, 267; and impact of big-time athletics on integrity of process, 281; and commercialization of higher education, 282; process, from perspective of a parent, 309–314
- Advanced Placement (AP), and: early college, 65; junior and senior year of high school, 67, 263; earlier degree completion, 211; nationally aligned content, 264; college readiness, 264; appropriate weight in class rankings, 265; college application process, 311, 313
- affirmative action: for male students, 117, 118; and unraveling of, at UC in the late 1990s, 136; and alternative strategies to achieve diversity, 139; and less-selective admissions at Cal State, 139; at Florida universities, and Jeb Bush’s attempt to eliminate, 214. See also diversity
- affordability: and Western Governors University, 49; and use of educational technology, Delta Cost Project, 93; and failing grade for Tennessee, Measuring Up 2008, 147; and Illinois’ grade reduced from A (Measuring Up 2000) to D (Measuring Up 2004), 165; and budget cuts, tuition increases, 190; and studies by Kentucky Council on Postsecondary Education, 196; and Florida, need for state-level authority, 202; and British universities charging maximum tuition allowed, 235; and efforts in West Virginia to preserve and promote, 306; and declining availability of higher education, 315, 318. See also access, tuition
- Agresto, John, 4–6; (photo), 5
- Ainsworth, Terry, 141
- Aitchison, Andrew, 158
- Alexandra, Nicholas, 8
- Alley, Keith, 37
- Allison Barber: WGU Indiana’s chancellor leads a public relations campaign (sidebar), 54
- Alpert, Dede, 138
- Alvarez, Soly, 96
- American Association of Colleges and Universities, 255
- American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education (AACTE), 72, 293
- American Association of Collegiate Schools of Business, 292
- American Association of Community Colleges, 79, 253
- American Association of State Colleges and Universities (AASCU), 125, 126, 187, 189
- American Association of University Professors (AAUP), and: censure of institutions and professors, 275, 276; academic freedom, 285
- American Association of University Women, and: political influence, 119
- American Civil Liberties Union of Michigan, 298
- American College Testing. See ACT
- American Council on Education (ACE), and: gender imbalance in higher education, 117; minority and low-income male students, 118; Charles Reed, 122; K–20 plan in Florida, 198; Robert H. Atwell, 201; higher-education associations in Washington, DC, 251; expanding the state role in higher education, 251; money spent on federal lobbying, 253; institutional autonomy, 255
- American Graduation Initiative, 249–251
- American InterContinental University, 254

- Americans have emphasized the importance of a higher education for a number of years* (chart), 315
- Amrhein, Michael F., 227
- Anagnoson, Ted, 124
- Anderson, Chelsea, 100
- Anderson, Jessica, 26; (photo), 27; 30, 31
- Anderson, Todd (photography), 197, 198, 201
- Annenberg Foundation, 70
- Annie E. Casey Foundation, 152
- Anthony, Ben, 181, 185
- AP. See Advanced Placement
- Apollo Group, 236; and: money spent on federal lobbying, 253
- Application Madness: For many parents, the college admissions process leads to panic* (spring 2004) (Anne C. Roark), 309–314
- appropriations, state: and cuts at Metropolitan State College of Denver, 131; and cuts to public higher education in South Carolina, 145; and Tennessee's performance-based approach, 147, 150; and direct subsidies to students in Colorado, 151, 152, 156, 158; and Illinois universities, 161, 165; and cuts to Virginia public universities, 187, 188, 190; and Kentucky higher education reform legislation, 193; and Florida tuition increases, lottery proceeds, 215; and feuding in Florida between regents and legislature, 216; and Pennsylvania community colleges, Penn State, 225; and cuts to Pennsylvania public higher education, 226; and deep cuts to British universities, 236; and reductions in Washington, Nevada, Texas, Oregon, Idaho, California and South Carolina, 272; and reductions in, as a means of promoting greater efficiency, 301; and cuts to West Virginia higher education, 306; and shifting funding responsibility toward students' resources, 307. See also budget cuts
- Ari, Waskar, 277
- Arkansas Governor's Distinguished Scholar program, 298
- Arlé, John, 75
- Armendariz, Carisa, 6, 8
- Armenti, Angelo Jr., 225–227; (photo), 227
- Ashley, David B., 34, 35
- An Assessment of Academic Freedom: How anti-terrorism measures have impacted the higher education community* (September 2007) (Robert M. O'Neil), 275–279
- Association for the Study of Higher Education, 254
- Association of American Colleges, 302
- Association of American Universities, 156, 187
- Association of Governing Boards of Universities and Colleges, 169, 201, 307
- Association of Independent Colleges and Universities of Pennsylvania, 228
- Association of Private Sector Colleges and Universities, 252
- Association of Public and Land-grant Universities, 253
- athletics: and male enrollment at large public institutions, 118; at Northern Kentucky University, and new basketball arena, 125; and student fees, 128; at Western Kentucky University, and increased student fees, doubling of football budget, 128; and willingness of students to eliminate, 189; and construction at UC Berkeley, 220; and commercialization of higher education, impact on integrity of admissions process, 281–283; and excessive salaries for football and basketball coaches, 295, 296
- attainment: and WGU Indiana, 53; and failure of male students, 115; in California, importance of community colleges, 138; in Oregon, failure to meet enrollment goals, 175; in Ohio, low national ranking, 182; in Kentucky, and effect of poverty on, 192, 194; gap between high- and low-income students, 266; and disappointing rates, escalating costs, 301; and effect of cohort model on, 303; in West Virginia, low national ranking, 305; and Lumina Foundation goal, 305. See also, completion, graduation rates
- Atwell, Robert, 198, 199, 201, 202; on: escalating presidential pay, 295–296
- Austerity Measures: Students protest as a cash-strapped government lets British universities triple their fees* (May 2011) (Jon Marcus), 233–236
- Automotive Research Center, 291
- Auxter, Tom, 200, 201
- Babson College, and: relationship with Olin College, 25, 29; collective negotiation among universities, 188
- Back to College: Update* (July 2007) (Todd Sallo), 112
- Bagnoli, Joe, 18
- Bailey, Judy, and: enrollment at East Carolina University, 106
- Bakke, Eric Lars (photography), 129–132, 151–160
- Baldassare, Mark, 137
- Baldwin-Wallace College, 182
- Ball State University, 55, 70, 72
- Bamford, Rebecca, 40
- Bancroft, Lori, (photo), 177
- Barber, Allison, and: WGU Indiana, 51–55; (photo), 54
- Bard College, and: early college, 64–66, 68
- Barrett, Sean, (photo), 240; 241, 242
- Basic Skills Initiative, and: California, 100; community colleges, 139
- Bates, Robert, 98
- Battle, Stanley, (photo), 210; and: Coppin State University, 212
- Baum, Sandy, 166
- Baunach, Dorothy, 182, 184
- Bayh, Evan, and: Indiana's 21st Century Scholars program, 179
- Beasley, David M., 142
- Beckett, Samuel, and: Trinity College, 239
- Beckham, David, 232
- Bekhradnia, Bahram, (photo), 235; 235, 236
- Bell Policy Center, 157, 159
- Bellamy, Bo, 100
- Bennett, John, and: Virginia funding for higher education, 204–208; (photo), 208
- Benson, Bruce, (photo), 151; and: Colorado's higher education voucher plan, 151, 152, 155
- Benvenisty, Sarah, 215
- Berck, Peter, and: UC Merced, 33
- Berea College, 15–18
- Berea College: Update* (July 2007) (Todd Sallo), 17
- Berry, Katrina, 162
- Berryman, Treva, 102
- Bersin, Alan, and: Cal State Chancellor Charles Reed, 123, 124
- Beshear, Steve, and: Kentucky higher education spending cuts, 194
- "Beyond the Rhetoric: Improving College Readiness Through Coherent State Policy" (2010), report published by National Center for Public Policy and Higher Education, and the Southern Regional Education Board, 267
- Biden, Jill, 255
- Biden, Joe, 255
- Big Sandy Community and Technical College, 191
- Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, and: WGU Indiana, 53; Bard High School Early College, 64; launching of new early college high schools, 66, 68; LaGuardia Community College, 83; Virginia higher education, 86; funding for redesign of math courses, 101; postsecondary completion, 256; Public Agenda survey, 316
- Blackman, Sonia, 90, 91
- Blagojevich, Rod, and: Illinois' "Truth in Tuition" plan, 161, 163
- Blair, Tony, 231, 235, 278
- Blake, Barbara, 165
- Blake, Peter, 205, 207
- Blasi, Andrew, 189, 190
- Blazek, Kate, 29
- Bloomberg, Michael, 83

- Blue Ridge Community College, 87
- Bodie, Carol, (photo), 179
- Bogdanoff, Ellyn, 201
- Boggs, Roy, 20
- Boisen, Monte, 98
- Bok, Derek, (interview), on: commercialization of higher education research, 281–283
- Bollinger, Lee, 285
- Bond, Constance, (photo), 70; 70, 71
- Borough of Manhattan Community College, 221, 222
- Botstein, Leon, 64, 65, 68
- Bourdon, Terri, 95, 96
- Bournemouth University, 231
- Bowen, Barbara, 224
- Bowen, Howard, 301
- Bowie State, 211
- Bowles, Erskine, 104
- Bowling Green State University, 181–183
- Bowman, Stewart (photography), 15–18, 192
- Box, Jay, 194
- Brack, Dennis (photography), 86, 150, 189, 203, 204, 209–212, 250–252, 254, 256
- Brady, Hugh, 239, 241, 242; (photo), 242
- Brady, Thomas, 61
- Brandeis University, and: relationship with Olin College, 30; Robert Reich, 231
- Branson, Richard, 232
- Bredeson, Philip, 147, 148
- Breneman, David W., and: Illinois’ “Truth in Tuition” plan, 162; presidential salaries, university rankings, 188; (photo), 189; tuition and affordability, 190; Virginia’s higher education restructuring plan, 204, 206, 208; on: recessions past and present, and their effect on higher education, 271–273
- Brierly, Cornelia, 10
- Bright Futures scholarships in Florida, 298
- Brinded, Ben, 230–232
- Brinegar, Kevin, 180
- Bringing “Dropouts” Back to College: The University of New Mexico’s Graduation Project is the first of its kind among the nation’s public universities* (spring 2004) (Robert A. Jones), 109–113
- Bristol, Jack, 62
- Brooks, Nathaniel (photography), 221, 222, 224
- Brostrom, Nathan, (photo), 219; and: declining university budgets in California, 219, 220
- Brown, Dennis, 61
- Brown, Greg (photography), 115
- Brown, Hank, and: cuts to higher education funding in Colorado, 158; higher-cost academic programs, 159; importance of higher education, 160; dismissal of Ward Churchill, 276
- Brown, Kellie Jo (photography), 124
- Brown, Phillip, and: “graduate glut” in Britain, 232
- Browne, Jim, 238, 240, 241
- Brueggeman, Bud, 87
- Brzoska, Karen, (photo), 89; 91
- Buckner, Jay, and: Berea College, 17
- Bucks for Brains, and: Kentucky higher education funding, 191–195; West Virginia, 307
- budget cuts: and UC Merced, 34, 35; to California higher education spending, 35, 37; and CUNY, 82; and Virginia’s community college system, 85; and Virginia Tech, 97, 98; and Cal State, 122, 124; and North Kentucky University, 126; and Metropolitan State College of Denver, 129–131; and performance-based funding in South Carolina 145; and University of Colorado, 155, 156; and Colorado higher education spending, 158; and Oregon higher education spending, 175, 176; and Ohio’s attempt to shield universities from, 183, 184; and Virginia higher education spending, 187–190; and Kentucky higher education spending, 192, 193, 195; and Florida higher education spending, 198–201; and increased funding for University System of Maryland, state surplus, 209, 212; at Florida’s public universities, 213, 214, 216; and California’s public universities, 217–220; New York’s public university systems, 222–224; at British universities, 233, 234, 236; at Irish universities, 243–246; and Obama administration efforts to compensate for, 249; and effect on enrollments and tuition, 272; and escalating presidential pay, 296; at public institutions, 301; and effect on educational quality, 318; and federal stimulus funds, economic policy, 322. See also appropriations
- Burdman, Pamela, on: Rio Salado College, in Arizona, 73–77; continuing importance of California’s 1960 Master Plan for Higher Education, 135–140; Colorado’s voucher program, 151–156
- Bureau of Labor Statistics, 321
- Burke, Edmund, and: Trinity College, 239
- Burke, Joseph C., and: performance budgeting, 146
- Burritt, Matthew, (photo), 3
- Burton, John, and: UC Merced, 34
- Bush, George W., and: Northern Kentucky University, 125; Margaret Spellings, Pell grants, 253, 254; Troubled Assets Relief Program, 272; academic freedom, 275, 276
- Bush, Jeb, and: Florida K–20 initiative, 198; board of governors, 199; “seamless system,” 201; decentralization, 202; resolve to eliminate affirmative-action policies at public universities, 214; stacking the board of governors with political allies, 215
- Buttram, Suzanne, 171
- By 2018, about two-thirds of all employment will require some college education or better* (chart), 322
- By the Numbers: Higher education in Obama’s first two years* (sidebar), 253
- Bybee, Michael, 5
- Cabaldon, Christopher, 136
- Cabezas, Jaime, 31
- Cain, William Thomas (photography), 226, 228
- Cal-PASS. See California Partnership for Achieving Student Success
- Cal Poly Pomona, and: use of technology in redesigning large introductory university classes, 89–94
- Cal State Board of Trustees, and: Charles Reed, 121, 124; budget request to state legislature in 2009, 217
- Cal State Chico (also Chico State), 123
- Cal State Faculty Association, and: Charles Reed, 121, 124
- Cal State Los Angeles, 124, 136
- Cal State Monterey Bay, and: new campuses to serve an influx of students, 137
- Calamity in California: State’s battered budget leads to huge fee increases and less access to public universities* (December 2009) (Jon Marcus), 217–220
- Caldera, Louis, and: University of New Mexico Graduation Project, 109, 111; (photo), 111
- California EDGE Campaign (Education, Diversity and Growth in the Economy), 140
- California Faculty Association, and: forced unpaid furloughs, 217
- California Legislative Black Caucus, 122
- California Partnership for Achieving Student Success (Cal-PASS), and: sharing data among K–12 schools, two-year colleges and four-year universities, 139, 140
- California Postsecondary Education Commission (CPEC), 37, 135–137
- California State Student Association (CSSA), and: Charles Reed, lobbying for a financial aid bill, 123
- California State University, and: merit pay plans for faculty, 22;

- proposals to postpone UC Merced, 33; state budget cuts, 35; spending for new research facilities, 36; allocation of resources to UC campuses, 38. See also Cal State
- California University of Pennsylvania, and: privatization, and diminishing state support, 225–228
- California Cal Grant program, and: rise in number of recipients, 218; income requirements, 298
- Callan, Patrick M., on: Clark Kerr (interview), 259–261
- Callender, Claire, and: criticism of British tuition fees, 230–232; (photo), 230
- Caltech, 31, 260
- Cambridge, University of, and: new tuition fees at British universities, 229–231; enrollment of foreign students, 231; role of universities in society, 232; elite British universities charging maximum tuition, 235; John Sperling, 289
- Cambridge University Student Union, 230
- Campaign for College Opportunity, 140, 218
- Campbell, Don, on: East Carolina University, efforts to improve retention and graduation rates, 103–108; HOPE scholarship, Georgia, financial difficulty, 167–171
- Campbell, Kathy, 173, 174; (photo), 174
- Campbell, Linda, (photo), 63; 67
- Canning, Anna, 3, 4
- Carden, Allen, 38
- Cardiff University, 232
- Career Education Corporation, and: money spent on federal lobbying, 253
- Caret, Robert, 210
- Carey, James, and: St. John's College, 3–6; (photo), 4
- Carlson, Don, and: higher education vouchers, 156
- Carnegie Foundation, 68, 70
- Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, 27, 125
- Carnegie Mellon University, 227, 313
- Carnevale, Anthony P., and: West Virginia's need to produce more college graduates, 305; on: value of postsecondary education, 321–323
- Carroll, Joseph, 244; (photo), 245
- Carson, Ron, 192
- Carter, Margaret, 176
- Carter, Mary Ann (photography), 51–55
- Cartwright, Carol, 182, 183; (photo), 183
- Carullo, Julie, 145
- Casey, Effi, 11, 13
- Cate, Mark, 150
- Cavanaugh, John, and: politics in Florida higher education, 197; relationships between universities and community colleges, 202
- CCHE. See Colorado Commission on Higher Education
- The Celtic Tiger: Ireland invests heavily in higher education, and benefits mightily* (winter 2007) (Jon Marcus), 237–242
- Cencich, John R., and: online learning at California University of Pennsylvania, 227
- Center for Academic Enrichment and Allied Health, and: East Carolina University, 106
- Center for Academic Transformation. See National Center for Academic Transformation
- Center for Public Higher Education Trusteeship and Governance, 202
- Center for Responsive Politics, and: lobbying by for-profit higher education sector, 253
- Center for Studies in Higher Education, 135
- Center for the Study of Education Policy, 160
- Center for the Study of Higher Education, at the University of Virginia, 47
- Center for the Study of Higher Education at Pennsylvania State University, 153, 170, 171, 226, 254
- Center on Education and the Workforce at Georgetown University, and: U.S. demand for college-educated workers, 251
- Central Valley Higher Education Consortium, 38
- Centre for Research on Adaptive Nanostructures and Nanodevices (CRANN), 244, 245
- Chadron State College, and: licensing of course materials to WGU, 47
- Chait, Richard, 22, 23
- Changing the Subject: Costs, graduation rates and the importance of rethinking the undergraduate curriculum* (May 2010) (Robert Zemsky and Joni Finney), 301–303
- Charles B. Reed: Cal State chancellor strives to promote quality and diversity in the nation's largest four-year college system (summer 2006) (Kathy Witkowsky), 121–124
- Charlton, C.H., 100
- Chattanooga State Community College, 102
- Chemeketa Community College, and: licensing of course materials to WGU, 47; Oregon Opportunity Grants, 173, 174; effort to qualify for matching foundation grants, 176
- Cherry, David, and: St. John's College, 7
- Chicago State University, and: rising tuition in Illinois, and six-year graduation rate, 164
- Chichester, John H., (photo), 203; and: higher education restructuring in Virginia, 204, 208
- Chirito, Ricardo, (photo), 215; and: attending Miami Dade College, 216
- Christopher, Katy, 4
- Chronicle of Higher Education*, and: El Paso Collaborative for Academic Excellence, 59; effect of recessions on U.S. higher education, 272; treatment of adjunct faculty, 285; lack of a consistent definition of a bachelor's degree, 288; online learning programs, 293; state funding of merit scholarships via lotteries, 299; the value of a college education, 321
- Churchill, Ward, and: dismissal from University of Colorado, 276, 277; academic freedom, 285
- City College of New York, 131, 278
- City University of New York (CUNY), and: LaGuardia Community College, 79; foreign students, 80; Mayor Giuliani, 82; increasing enrollment, 221; low degree completion rate, 222; plummeting budgets, cuts in state aid, 222; rise in applicants from suburbs, 222; resignation of Governor Eliot Spitzer, 223; fundraising efforts, 224; predictable tuition hikes, 224; academic freedom, 276
- CLARITY (research center at Dublin City University), 244, 245
- Clark, Amanda, 45; (photo), 49
- Clark, David, and: LaGuardia Community College, 65
- Clegg, Nick, (photo), 234; and: support for raising British university fees, 234
- Clemson University, 142
- Clendenin, Larry, and: St. John's College, 7
- Cleveland State Community College, and: redesign of developmental math courses, 99, 101, 102; Bellwether Award, 101; computer-assisted developmental courses, 148; adoption of outcome funding, 149
- Cleveland State University, and: collaboration with other institutions, joint degree programs, 184
- Clinton administration, and: direct federal lending to students, 250; State Student Incentive Grant, 297
- Clinton, Bill, and: 1992 election, 211
- Clooney, George, and: Northern Kentucky University, 128
- “The Closing Gateway” (1993), report published by National Center for Public Policy and Higher Education, and Public Agenda, 315
- Coastal Carolina University, and: performance-based budgeting, 141, 144, 146
- Coates, Dennis, 210
- COF. See College Opportunity Fund
- Cogill, Tom (photography), 103–108, 122, 187, 188, 190, 205, 207, 208

Cohen, Robert, and: use of federal stimulus funds at Metropolitan State College of Denver, 129, 132 collaboration: among departments at UC Merced, 34; among faculty and departments at University of Minnesota Rochester, 40, 41; and El Paso Collaborative for Academic Excellence, 57–62; and New York's Bard College, 64; between North Kentucky University and surrounding region, 126; among institutions under performance-based funding, 150; between Indiana's Ivy Tech and Vincennes University, 180; among Ohio universities, 181–184; among Kentucky universities, reform legislation, 191, 196; and competition among Florida's public universities, 202; among New York universities, 224; and competition among Irish universities, 238, 239; between industry and Dublin City University, 244, 245; between Obama administration and foundations, 256; and Wisconsin Technical College System, 291; between industry and West Virginia colleges, 307. See also partnership

A Collaborative for Academic Excellence: El Paso's partnership program boasts impressive gains in student performance (winter 1999) (William Trombley), 57–62

College Access and Completion Fund, and: opposition to Obama administration proposal, 255

College Access Challenge Grants, and: low-income students, 255

College Board, The, and: upsurge in Pell grants due to tuition increases, 251; uniform K–16 standards, 263; College Board Pacesetters as substitute for SAT I, 265; income disparity in college attendance, 298

College Foundation of West Virginia, 306

College of Charleston, 141, 146

The College of Her Choice: Update (August 2007) (Anne C. Roark), 312

College of William and Mary, and: cuts in state appropriations, 187; budget cuts, 188; required fee for intercollegiate athletics, 189; faculty salaries, 189; construction on campus, 189; students from out of state, 190; cost of attending, 190; higher education restructuring in Virginia, 203–208

College Opportunity Fund (COF), and: Colorado's higher education voucher plan, 155, 157, 158; student access, 159

College Presidents, or CEOs? Presidential pay is escalating at a time when institutions are cutting budgets (summer 2004) (Robert Atwell), 295–296

Collins, Tim, 230

Colorado College, 159

Colorado Commission on Higher Education (CCHE), and: Colorado's higher education voucher plan, 151, 152, 154, 160

Colorado Community College system, 155, 158, 159

Colorado Department of Higher Education, and: declining enrollment of low-income students, 155

Colorado State University (CSU), and: mission grants, 153; tuition flexibility, 153; financial aid, 154; higher education voucher plan, 157

Colorado Student Association, and: higher education voucher plan, 153

Colorado Taxpayer's Bill of Rights (TABOR), and: limits on growth in state spending, 151, 156–160; tuition flexibility, 153–155

Colorado's "Grand Experiment": Voucher program could give the state's colleges a new lease on life (spring 2003) (Pamela Burdman), 151–156

Colorado's Voucher Program: Update (July 2008) (William Trombley), 155

Coltrane, Geoff, and: early colleges, 67

Columbia State Community College, and: redesigned reading and writing courses, 102

Columbia University, 65, 69; and: cost-saving collaboration with New York University (NYU), 224; academic freedom, 275, 277, 278, 285

Columbia University Teachers College, and: Arthur Levine, 69; online continuing education for teachers, 293

Columbus State Community College, and: collaboration with Ohio University, joint degree program, 184

Comins, Michael, 199; (photo), 202

"The Commercialization of Higher Education" (2003), by Derek Bok, Princeton University Press, 281

Commission for Higher Education, Indiana, 51, 53, 177, 179, 180

Commission on the Future of Higher Education (Spellings Commission), 47; and: calls for more accountability in higher education, 254; Robert Zemsky, 256

Common Core State Standards, 267, 268

Community College Futures Assembly, 101

Community College of Beaver County, 225, 227

Complete College America, and: degree completion in Tennessee, 147

Complete College Tennessee Act, 147, 148, 150

Complete to Compete, 307

completion: and community college baccalaureate degrees, 77; and efforts at East Carolina University, 103–108; and six-year standard for, 103, 107; and University of New Mexico's Graduation Project, 109–113; and low rates for male students, 117; and low rates in California, 136, 137, 139; and part-time students, 137; and California Master Plan's emphasis on access, 138; and efforts in Tennessee to improve rates, Complete College Tennessee Act, 147; and low rates in Kentucky, 194; and efforts at University System of Maryland to improve, 211; and federal stimulus funds, 251; rates at community colleges, 252; and Obama administration policy, 255; and efforts of Lumina Foundation and Gates Foundation, 256; and overemphasis on access, 263, 265; and college preparation, 269; and lack of recent improvement in rates, 273; and wealth, location and ethnicity of enrolled students, 301; and growing state and federal focus on, 305; and efforts in West Virginia to increase degree production, 306, 307; and detrimental effect of inequitable distribution of resources on, 323. See also attainment, graduation rates

Cone, Chris (photography), 126–128

Cone, Patrick (photography), 45–50

Congressional Budget Office, and: subsidies to banks that provide student loans, 251

Connelly, Julianna, (photo), 25; and: Olin College, 26, 30, 31

Cook, Philip, and: state lotteries, 299

Coppin State University, 210–212

Cordero, Arellana, 109, 113

Cornell University, 27, 29, 30, 187; and: for-profit online program, eCornell, 291

Cornwell, Christopher, and: economic efficiency of HOPE scholarships, 168, 171

Corporate Associates Program, and: online instruction, 92

Costello, Ned, 240, 241

Coulter, Colin, 248

Council for Industry and Higher Education, and: the value of higher education, 232

Council of Chief State School Officers, 115

Council of University System Faculty, 210

Council on Higher Education, Virginia, 203

CPEC. See California Postsecondary Education Commission

CRANN. See Centre for Research on Adaptive Nanostructures and Nanodevices

CSSA. See California State Student Association

Crist, Charlie, and: differential tuition increases at Florida universities, 200; "premium tuition increase" at largest public universities, 215; lobbying by businesses, 216

Crocker, Jack, and: support of interdisciplinary studies at Florida Gulf Coast University, 19, 23; prospects for the future, 24

CSU. See Colorado State University

- CU. See University of Colorado system
 CU-Boulder. See University of Colorado at Boulder
 Cummings, Laura, and: Woodrow Wilson teaching fellowships, 70–72
 Cunningham, Alisa Federico, 254
 Cunningham, Cecelia, (photo), 64; and: early colleges, 66, 67; Middle College National Consortium, 67
 CUNY. See City University of New York
 Cureton, Deborah, 144
 Curry School of Education, at the University of Virginia, 162, 204
 Cuyahoga Community College, and: joint degree programs in Ohio, 184
- Daniels, Mitch, (photo), 51, 71; and: establishment of WGU Indiana, 51, 52; Lumina Foundation for Education, 53; promoting online competency-based educational opportunities, 53; Indiana's interest in Woodrow Wilson teaching fellowships, 70; expanding the Indiana fellowship program, 72
 Daramola, Wumi, 80; (photo), 82
Daring to be Different: Rio Salado College has won a reputation as both outcast and innovator (spring 2001) (Pamela Burdman), 73–77
The Dark Side of Merit Aid: Funding for merit programs has greatly expanded, often at the expense of need-based financial aid (winter 2001) (Donald E. Heller), 297–299
 Davey, Kathleen, and: resistance among faculty to distance learning, 21; (photo), 22
 Davies, Gordon K., and: Kentucky's Council on Postsecondary Education, 191, 192; "mission creep" among colleges, 192
 Davila, Maria, (photo), 221; and: tuition increases at SUNY, 222
 Davis, Angela, 285
 Davis, Heather, and: St. John's College, 5, 6
 Davis, Leroy, 144
 Day, Hee Yeon, and: Colorado's higher education voucher plan, 157; (photo), 160
 Day, Ron, 170
 DCU. See Dublin City University
 De Genova, Nicholas, and: academic freedom, 277
 de los Santos, Jr., Alfredo, and: Rio Salado College, 73
 Deaton, Russ, 149
 DeBoe, John, 178
 Delaney, John, 201
 Delta Project on Postsecondary Education Costs, Productivity and Accountability, and: proportion of university spending that goes toward instruction, 188
 Dempsey, Liz, 65
 Denver University, and: Colorado's higher education voucher plan, 159
 Department of Education, U.S. (also, Education Department), and: proportion of tenured faculty at four-year institutions, 22; WGU grant, 46; El Paso Collaborative for Academic Excellence, 57; teachers leaving the profession, 72; national student database, 107; percentage of advanced degrees awarded to women, 116, 117; adult basic literacy programs, 183; allocation of stimulus funds in Pennsylvania, 225; incentive payments to student recruiters, 250; measures and standards, 250; job training, 251; debt-to-income regulations, deceptive marketing, 252, 253; gainful-employment measure, 253; credit hour definition, 254
 Department of Education, Ireland, and: research and development budget, 238
 Department of Enterprise, Trade and Employment, and: Irish universities, 240, 241
 Desch, Mike, 193
 Desrochers, Lindsay, and: UC Merced, 34, 38 developmental education. See remedial education
 Devlin, Richard, and: Oregon education budget, 176
 Devlin, Tim, and: Woodrow Wilson teaching fellowship, 71, 72
 DiCroce, Deborah, and: job training programs at Tidewater College, 87; (photo), 88
 Digiovanni, Anthony F., and: online education, 291
Diminishing State Support: Pennsylvania reduces state aid amid relentless tuition hikes and record enrollments (December 2009) (Kay Mills), 225–228
 Dingel, Molly, and: interdisciplinary curriculum at University of Minnesota Rochester, 43
 DiPaula, James C., 209
 DiPietro, Joseph, (photo), 148; and: Tennessee's outcome-funding system, 150
 Director, Stephen, 27 distance education: at Florida Gulf Coast University, 20, 21; and Western Governors University, 45–50; and Rio Salado College, 73, 75, 76; and transmitting courses from one college to another, in Virginia, 87; and redesigned courses at Rio Salado College, 93; and course offerings through University System of Maryland's University College, 211; and profit-making activity in higher education, 281, 282. See also online learning, technology
 Distance Education Training Council, and: accreditation of WGU, 46 diversity: at Frank Lloyd Wright School of Architecture, 12; at Berea College, 16; among contract faculty at Florida Gulf Coast University, 23; at Bard High School Early College, 65; at LaGuardia Community College, 79, 83, 84; in Cal State enrollment, 121; and Kentucky's Vision 2015 plan, 127; in California higher education, 139; at Miami Dade, 214; and difficulty of attracting diverse student body as tuitions rise, 228; and foreign students at Bournemouth University, 231; and England's Office for Fair Access, 232; and expected declines at British universities as tuition rises, 233. See also affirmative action
 Dixon, Clifton, and: rising tuition, 224
Does California's Master Plan Still Work? Separate higher education systems pursue different mandates, while participation and graduation rates decline (July 2008) (Pamela Burdman), 135–140
 Donnelly, Michael, and: Colorado's higher education voucher plan, 154
 Dorgan, Sean, 244; (photo), 247
 Douglass, John, and: the decline of public education in California, 135
 Doyle, Evan, and: student involvement in University of Minnesota Rochester, 41, 43; (photo), 42
 Drummond, Marshall, and: California community college system, 136, 139, 140
 Dublin City University (DCU), and: biomedical research, commercialization, 244; university status, 245; interdisciplinary research center, 245; college rankings, 246; 247, 248
 DuBois, Glenn, (photo), 85; and: Virginia's community college system, 85; the need to do more with less, 85; state funding, 86; assessing and handling unprepared students, 86; technology in higher education, 87; student advising online, 88; high school outreach, 88
 Duffield, Pam, 163
 Duke University, 286
 Dunbar, Robert, and: University of Minnesota Rochester, 41, 42; interdisciplinary approach, 43
 Duncan, Arne, (photo), 252; 254
 Dunning, Jasmine, 236
 Duran, Benjamin T., and: non-English-speaking parents, UC Merced, 37; (photo), 38

- Durant, Ivonne, and: El Paso Collaborative for Academic Excellence, 57; parental involvement, 58; support from the University of Texas-El Paso, 60
- Durrans, Janet (photography), 119
- Dymally, Mervyn, (photo), 122; and: Cal State outreach efforts, Charles Reed, 123
- Dynes, Robert, and: negotiations with Charles Reed, 123; six-year higher education compact, 124; executive compensation scandals, 136
- Dyson, Arthur, and: Frank Lloyd Wright School of Architecture, 11
- early colleges: and El Paso Collaborative for Academic Excellence, 61; as a national trend, and examples of, 63–68
- “Early Colleges”: Innovative institutions attempt to reshape the transition from high school to college (winter 2003) (Ron Feemster), 63–68
- “Early Colleges”: Update (October 2008) (William Trombley), 66–67
- Easley, Mike, 67
- East Carolina University, and: retention and graduation rates, 103–108
- East Carolina University: Update* (July 2008) (Todd Sallo), 106–107
- Eastern Kentucky University, and: interest in offering doctorates in education, 192; tuition increase, 196
- Eastern Michigan University, and: Woodrow Wilson Teaching Fellowship program, 72; 130
- Eastern Washington University, 129, 156
- Ebsen, Nicole, 157
- Education Commission of the States (ECS), and: developmental education, 99, 100
- Education Policy Center, University of Alabama, 252
- Education Sector, 250, 255
- Education Trust, The, and: partnerships between K–12 and higher education, 62; East Carolina University’s graduation rate, 103, 104; national student database, 107; institutional involvement in student success, 107; analysis of K–16 assessments, 264
- Edwards, Charles, 201
- “Effectiveness and Efficiency”: The University System of Maryland’s campaign to control costs and increase student aid (spring 2006) (Kay Mills), 209–212
- Ehrlich, Robert Jr., and: Maryland higher education, 209–212
- Eisenstadt, Bert, and: LaGuardia Community College writing center, 81, 82
- El Paso Collaborative for Academic Excellence, 57–62
- El Paso Community College, 57–61
- El Paso’s Collaborative: Update* (June 2008) (William Trombley), 60–61
- Elifrits, Dale, and: faculty enthusiasm for community service, 127
- Elliott, Richard, (photo), 79; and: LaGuardia Community College, 82, 83
- Elman, Sandra, and: accreditation of WGU, 47, 50
- Enduring Values, Changing Concerns: Increasing necessity and declining availability of higher education creates a challenge for many Americans* (October 2010) (John Immerwahr), 315–319
- The Engaged University: Northern Kentucky University is building closer links to its community* (fall 2008) (Jon Marcus), 125–128
- Engel, Michelle, (photo), 180
- Engler, John, and: Michigan Virtual Automotive College, 291
- Enterprise Ireland, and: economic development, 241
- Erickson, Rodney, and: diminishing support for higher education in Pennsylvania, 226; tuition hikes, 228; (photo), 228
- ESL (English as a Second Language), and: Rio Salado Community College, 76; remedial English, 81; LaGuardia Community College, 83; enrollment in, 84
- Evans, Larry (photography), 161–166
- Evergreen State College, The, and: faculty contracts, 22, 23
- Everson, Mark, 55
- Ewell, Peter, and: expectations for WGU, 46; systematic approach to use of technology, 89, 90; reservations about online instruction, 92, 94; generational shift in use of technology, 93
- An Experiment in Florida: Gulf Coast University tries faculty contracts, no tenure* (spring 1999) (William Trombley), 19–24
- Eynon, Bret, and: LaGuardia Center for Teaching and Learning, 83
- faculty contracts. See tenure
- faculty workload: and faculty resignations at Florida Gulf Coast University, 24; and lack of staff support, at UC Merced, 37; and course redesigns, online instruction, 94; increased under University System of Maryland’s “Effectiveness and Efficiency” campaign, 209, 210; increased at Florida State University due to budget cuts, 213; in Ireland, and government provision specifying teaching hours, 247
- FAFSA. See Free Application for Federal Student Aid
- Fairfield University, 89, 94
- Farrell, James, 243
- Faust, Terry L., and: Georgia’s HOPE scholarship, 168, 171
- Federal Stimulus Funds Projects at Metropolitan State College of Denver* (sidebar), 130
- Fee, Gordon, 148
- Feemster, Ron, on: early colleges, 63–68; LaGuardia Community College, New York, 79–84
- Ferguson, Steve, 177, 179
- Festa, Conrad, 146
- FGCU. See Florida Gulf Coast University
- financial aid: cuts at California universities, 35; and eligibility of distance education for federal funds, 49; and WGU Indiana, 53; and Virginia’s efforts to increase, 87; and advocacy by Charles Reed, 123; and California’s minimal investment in, 138; and increases in tuition and fees, impact on low-income students, 153; in Colorado, tuition increases and need-based assistance, 154, 155; and impact of voucher system, 156; and Georgia HOPE scholarships, 167; and complexity of federal programs, 168; and emphasis on merit-based over need-based, 169, 170; and Oregon’s Opportunity Grants, 173; and record numbers of students applying for, 174; and Oregon budget cuts, 175, 176; and generous programs in Indiana, 177; in Virginia, and increasing demand for, 187; and modest increase during recession, 207; in Maryland, and increase in need-based, 209; and urgency of increasing, 211, 212; in Florida, and low availability of need-based, 215; in California, and protection of Cal Grant program, 218; and challenges facing New York, 221, 222; in Pennsylvania, and reductions in, 225, 227; in England, and increases for low-income students, 229, 230; as a tool for universities to attract desirable students, 232; and British universities charging maximum tuition, 235; and Obama administration policy, 249, 251, 252; and for-profit institutions, admitting unqualified students, 252; and problems with merit-aid systems, 297–299; in West Virginia, and reform of programs, 305, 306
- Financial Challenges Oregon’s Opportunity Grant program must overcome new hurdles due to the recession* (March 2009) (Kathy Witkowsky), 173–176
- Fingerhut, Eric, and: University System of Ohio, 181; politics of persuasion, 182; (photo), 182; ten-year plan, 183; joint degree programs, 184; strategic leadership, 185
- Finley, Don, 207
- Finney, Joni, on: costs, graduation rates and the importance of rethinking the undergraduate curriculum, 301–303
- Fiske Guide to Colleges*, and: St. John’s College, 4

- Fleming, David, and: performance-based budgeting, 142, 146
- Fletcher, Ernie, and: Kentucky higher education reform, 192, 193, 196
- Florida A&M, and: proposed law school, 198
- Florida Association of Community Colleges, 199
- Florida Atlantic University, and: competition for resources, 198
- Florida Board of Education, 200, 216
- Florida Board of Governors, 197; and Jeb Bush appointees, 199; major policy decisions, 200, 202; attempts to abolish, 200; politics, 201; distrustful voters, 215; authority to set tuition, 215, 216
- Florida Board of Regents, and: no-tenure policies for faculty, 20, 22; proposed medical school at University of Central Florida, 197; dissolution in 2001, 198; political interference, 199; Jeb Bush's effort to replace, 214; feuding with the legislature, 216
- Florida's Governance of Public Education: Update* (March 2008) (William Trombley), 200–201
- Florida Gulf Coast University (FGCU), and: no-tenure policy, 19–24; enrollment growth, 198
- Florida Gulf Coast University by the Numbers* (table), 21
- Florida International University, and: proposed medical school, 197; competition for resources, 198; Board of Governors, 200, 215; presidential salary increase, 202
- Florida's Public Universities and Their Fall 2005 Enrollments* (chart), 199
- Florida State University (FSU), and: Charles Reed, 122; new medical school, 197; proposed chiropractic school, 199; declining minority enrollment, 213; budget cuts, 213, 216
- Florida's Unnatural Disaster: The state's economic bubble has burst, leaving higher education in a double bind* (March 2009) (Jon Marcus), 213–216
- Floyd, Dalton, and: performance-based budgeting in South Carolina, 144, 145
- Folkes, Axel (photography), 234
- for-profit education: and Western Governors University, licensed course materials, 47; and Rio Salado College, similarities to University of Phoenix, 75; and part-time faculty, 75; and mainstream universities, 190; and high-priced loans, students who can't afford public universities, 224; and Obama administration policy, 249; and Education Department rules governing recruitment, 250; as competitor to community colleges, 252; and high default rate on student loans, charges of fraud, new regulations, 252; and enrollment decline at University of Phoenix, 253; and new rules governing definition of a credit hour, 254; and John Sperling, University of Phoenix, 287–290; and Cornell University's eCornell, 291; and popular acceptance of online courses, 292; and teacher education courses, 293; as a challenge to traditional institutions, 305
- Ford Foundation, 68
- Forrester, Joe, (photo), 225; and: diminishing state support for higher education in Pennsylvania, 225; increasing taxes, 227; inequality in community college funding, 228
- Foster, Tim, and: Colorado's higher education voucher plan, 152; (photo), 153; appeal of vouchers to low-income students, 154
- Fox, Marye Anne, 220
- Francis, Don, and: state aid to private colleges in Pennsylvania, 228
- Frank Lloyd Wright Foundation, 9, 11, 12
- Frank Lloyd Wright School of Architecture, 9–14
- Frank Lloyd Wright School of Architecture: For outsiders, the school's unusual practices can be shocking* (winter 2001) (Kathy Witkowsky), 9–14
- Frank Lloyd Wright School of Architecture: Update* (July 2007) (Todd Sallo), 12–13
- Franklin W. Olin Foundation, and: establishing Olin College, 25, 27
- Fredholm, Ken, 27
- Fredholm, Nancy, 27
- Fredholm, Susan, (photo), 25; and: National Science Foundation graduate research fellowship, 29
- Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), and: record number of applicants, 174; lack of funds, 175; Obama administration's simplification of, 250
- French, David, and: math assessment at Tidewater Community College, 86; (photo), 87
- Friedman, Rick (photography), 25–31
- Frohnmayer, Dave, 176
- Frost, Betty, and: use of technology in redesigning math curriculum, 101, 102
- Frostburg State, 211
- FSU. See Florida State University
- Fund for Improvement of Postsecondary Education (FIPSE), 99
- fundraising: and Berea College, 17, 18; and Cal State presidents, 124; and Metropolitan State College of Denver's in-house call center, 129; and Oregon institutions seeking private donors to fill budget gaps, 176; from private foundations to exceed presidential salary caps, 201; and involvement of CUNY faculty, 224; as a response to reduced state spending, 226; at public and private institutions, to build large endowments, 273; as part of the job of a university president, 282, 295
- Galinson, Murray, and: Charles Reed, 121
- Gantz, Jay, and: Fulbright Scholarship, 29
- Garbinski, Judy, 227, 228
- Gardner, Chester S., and: four-year tuition guarantee for Illinois students, 161, 162
- Gardner, John, and: demographics of poor, rural states, 112
- Garesche, Gay, 77
- Garth, Jami, and: Berea College, 15, 18
- Gates, Bill, 317
- Gateway Community and Technical College, 196
- Gearhardt, Greg, 193
- Geiger, Llona, and: faculty contracts at Florida universities, 22
- Geissler, Jayne, (photo), 105; and: retention efforts at East Carolina University, 106–108
- General Accounting Office, and: applicants to for-profit colleges given deceptive information, 250, 252
- “The General Theory of Employment, Interest and Money” (1936), by John Maynard Keynes, Macmillan Cambridge University Press, for Royal Economic Society, 271
- George Mason University, 205, 207
- George, Edwin J., 20, 21
- Georges, Ari, and: Frank Lloyd Wright School of Architecture, 11
- Georgia Board of Regents, and: tuition increase for 2003–04, 168
- Georgia College & State University (GC&SU), 167, 169, 171
- Georgia HOPE scholarship, 167–171; and: merit-aid programs, 297; income cap, 298; lottery revenues, 299
- Georgia Perimeter College, 169
- Georgia State University (GSU), 23, 169, 170
- Georgia Student Finance Commission, and: HOPE scholarship program, 168, 170
- Georgia Tech, 30, 169
- Georgia's Hope Scholarships: Update* (April 2009) (William Trombley), 170
- Geringer, Jim, and: WGU, 46, 47
- GI Bill, 175, 185, 250, 256
- Gibson, Ian, (photo), 229; and: opposition to Tony Blair, 231; effect of tuition increases, 232
- Gibson, Stephanie, and: University System of Maryland, faculty teaching load, 210
- Gilbert, Austin, and: South Carolina performance-based budgeting, 141, 142, 145; (photo), 142
- Gilberto, Linda, and: adult Education at LaGuardia Community College, 84

Gillies, Malcolm, 235

Ginden, Jahmai, and: Frank Lloyd Wright School of Architecture, 12, 14

Glasper, Rufus, 76

Glavin, William, collective negotiation among universities, 188

Glendale Community College, 76

Glenn, Allen, 293

Glick, Deborah, and: effect of tuition increases on marginal students, 222; (photo), 223

Gloucester Community College, 79

Goldfarb, Al, 162

Golding, Stephen, and: financial crisis in higher education, 187; streamlining services to cut spending, 188; new construction projects, 189; more drastic cost-cutting measures, 190

Gomez, Danita, 110

Gomez, Mayra, and: Oregon Opportunity Grants, 174; (photo), 175

Goodman, Jack, and: adjunct faculty at Rio Salado College, 77

Gora, Jo Ann, and: WGU Indiana, 55

governance: and no-tenure policies, 22; in California, and disadvantages of segmental approach, 139; and Colorado's regional colleges, transition to separate boards, 156; in Florida, and dramatic changes, 197–202; restructuring in Virginia, 203–208; and political struggles in Florida, history of, 214, 215; and escalation of presidential compensation, 295, 296

Graduation Project, and: University of New Mexico, 109–113

graduation rates: at Berea College, 16; at WGU, 49; for high school students in El Paso, Texas, 60; at Virginia's community colleges, 85; and effort to increase through improved developmental education, 99, 100; and efforts to improve, at East Carolina University, 103–108; and University of New Mexico's Graduation Project, 109–113; in Kentucky, low national ranking, 126; and efforts to improve, at Metropolitan State College of Denver, 129, 130; in California, declining numbers, and racial gap, 135; at California's separate higher education systems, 137, 139; and South Carolina's "performance indicators," 141–143; in Tennessee, and efforts to improve, 147, 149; at Illinois universities, 164; as basis for determining state funding for Ohio universities, 183; in Kentucky, and improvement following reform legislation, 191; and Virginia's 11 state goals for higher education, 207; and Obama administration's goals for improvement, American Graduation Initiative, 249–256. See also attainment, completion

Graham, Bob, and: Charles Reed, 122, 123; governance of higher education in Florida, 199, 201; authority to set tuition in Florida, 215, 216

Gramling, Tim, 169

Grand Valley State University, and: Woodrow Wilson Teaching Fellowship program, 72

Gray-Vickrey, Peg, and: Florida Gulf Coast University's no-tenure policy, 20, 23

Grodsky, David, and: early colleges, 64

A Growing Gender Gap: Update (May 2008) (Todd Sallo), 117

GSU. See Georgia State University

Guerriero, Joe (photography), 69, 70

Gupta, Utsav, (photo), 218; and: affordability of public higher education, 218, 219

Guzman, Edgar, and: early colleges, 63

Habib, Adam, and: academic freedom, 278

Hackley, Colin (photography), 213

Hakuta, Kenji, and: UC Merced, opening of, 34, 35; (photo), 37

Haley, Nancy, and: UC Merced, location of, 33

Halgren, Lee, and: vulnerability of Colorado regional colleges to economic fluctuations, 156

Hallman, Thomas, and: South Carolina's performance-based budgeting, 146

Hamill, Larry (photography), 181–183, 185

Hammons, Mark, and: Frank Lloyd Wright School of Architecture, 10, 12, 13

Hammons, Mike, and: Northern Kentucky University, community engagement, 127, 128

Hampshire College, and: faculty contracts, 22, 23, 24

Hanafin, Mary, (photo), 239; and: "poaching" of faculty by University College Dublin, 239; balance between the humanities and science, 242

Hanna, Bruce, 176

Hanna, Dixon, and: Math Instruction at Virginia Tech, 98

Hanson, Dawn, and: WGU, 52; (photo), 53

Hanson, Sandra, and: writing tutors at LaGuardia Community College, 81

Hard Times: Tuitions rise, services cut, as university officials try to ride out a severe economic downturn (March 2009) (Jon Marcus), 187–190

Hartl, Andrew, (photo), 16; and: Berea College, 16

Hartle, Terry, (photo), 250; and: concerns about Obama administration policy proposals, 251; federal control of higher education, 254

Harvard University, and: Postsecondary Education Opportunity, 115; Civil Rights Project at, 169; delay in new construction, 189; 232, 239, 241; Derek Bok, 281; Larry Summers controversy, 285; well-rounded students, 290; college application process, 309; highly selective colleges, 310, 313

Harvard Graduate School of Education, 22, 125, 293

Haslam, Bill, and: support for Complete College Tennessee Act, 147, 150

Haugen, Frances, (photo), 26

Haugen, Tom, and: Olin College, 31

Haycock, Kati, and: partnerships between K–12 and higher education, 62; responsibility for low graduation rates, 104; quotas for retention and graduation, 107; national database to track student progress, 107; length of time to complete a degree, 108

Hayden, Daniel, (photo), 243; 244

Haynes, Ashli, 66

Haynes, Sandra, 132

Hayward, Jerry, and: gaps in participation rates in California, 135

Hazard Community and Technical College, and: University Center of the Mountains, 194

Hegarty, John, (photo), 237; and: conversion of knowledge into wealth, 238; inter-institutional collaboration, 241; the critical importance of the arts, humanities, 242; federal oversight of colleges, 254

Heller, Donald E., and: low-income students, 153; merit-based financial aid, 170; means testing, 171; pressure on higher education to raise revenue, 226; on: merit-based programs and need-based financial aid, 297–299

Henry, Gary, and: HOPE scholarship, 169, 170

Henson, Jimmy, and: web-based learning materials, effectiveness of, 100, 101; (photo), 101

Herken, Gregg, (photo), 35; and: UC Merced, 35, 37

Hernandez, Danny, 111

Hernandez, Hector, and: Colorado's College Opportunity Fund, 159

Hernandez, Veronica, 59

Hershenson, Jay, 224

Hershman, Lawrence C., and: UC Merced, 36

Hesketh, Anthony, and: "graduate glut" in Britain, 232

Higerd, Thomas, and: performance-based budgeting in South Carolina, 145

Higher Education Act, and: distance education, 49; access to college for low-income students, 297

Higher Education Policy Institute (HEPI) (Oxford), 235, 236

- Higher Education Research Institute, and: private colleges as enclaves of the well-to-do, 15
- Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools, and: accreditation controversy, 254
- Hill, Matthew, (photo), 25, 30; and: pioneering first class at Olin College, 26, 29–31
- Hispanic Serving Institution, and: Metropolitan State College of Denver, 130, 132
- Hite, Carl, and: outcome-funding in Tennessee, 149, 150
- Hitt, John, (photo), 197; and: hired lobbyists for University of Central Florida, 197; huge presidential pay increases, 202; centralization of Florida's university system, 202
- Ho, Winston, 193
- Hodges, Chuck, and: Math Emporium at Virginia Tech, 95; Macintosh computers, use of, 96
- Hoffman, Elizabeth, (photo), 152; and: Colorado's higher education vouchers, and tuition flexibility, 153; financial aid, 154; problems with funding and regulation, 155, 156
- Hogan, Patrick J., and: one-year tuition freeze in Maryland, 212
- Holcomb, Will, 201
- Holderman, James B., and: expense account scandal at University of South Carolina, 142
- Holt, Stephen, and: Olin College, 29, 30
- Hooman, Robert (photography), 223
- HOPE. See Georgia HOPE scholarship
- HOPE Springs Eternal: Georgia's scholarship program, a model for the nation, experiences financial pains* (summer 2003) (Don Campbell), 167–171
- Hornburg, Jim, and: Rio Salado College, 74
- Horner, Sally, and: performance-based budgeting in South Carolina, 141, 146; increased student-faculty ratio, 144
- Horowitz, David, and: academic freedom, 279
- Horsman, Dave, and: Rio Salado College, 76
- Horton, Adam, and: Olin College, 31
- Hudson Valley Community College, 224
- Hughes, Ed, and: collaboration between universities in Kentucky, 196
- Humphreys, Debra, (photo), 254; and: the difference between job training and liberal education, 255
- Humphries, Gordon (photography), 141–146
- Hunt Report, and: research spending at Irish universities, 245; rising enrollments, registration fees, 246
- Hunter, Joseph, and: Olin College, 25, 27–29
- Hurley, Daniel, and: response of higher education to economic downturn, 187, 188; savings on instructional delivery, 189
- Husted, Jon, 182
- Ice, Jerry, and: part-time faculty at for-profit institutions, 75
- If colleges cut budgets, will the quality of education suffer?* (table), 318
- Illinois Board of Higher Education, 116; and: rising tuition, 163, 164, 166
- Illinois State University, and: Center for the Study of Education Policy, 157; six-year graduation rate, 164
- Illinois Student Assistance Commission, and: reduction in grants in hard times, 164; 165
- Immerwahr, John, and: “Iron Triangle,” 301; on: increasing necessity, and declining availability, of higher education, 315–319
- Indiana, 21st Century Scholars, and: balance between need- and merit-based aid, 171, 177; student successes, 178; Stan Jones and Evan Bayh, 179
- Indiana Chamber of Commerce, and: educational standards, 179; 180
- Indiana Commission for Higher Education, 51, 177
- Indiana Education Roundtable, 179
- Indiana State University, 178
- Indiana University, 128, 179; and: cost-cutting measures, 190
- Indiana University's Board of Trustees, 177
- Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis (IUPUI), and: Woodrow Wilson Indiana Teaching Fellowship, 70, 71; Transition to Teaching program, 72; 21st Century Scholars, 178
- Indiana's “Eighth University”: Western Governors University brings its “competency-based” approach to the Hoosier state* (December 2010) (Kathy Witkowsky), 51–55
- Indiana's 21st Century Scholars: A new community college system and college prep curriculum are improving the state's position* (winter 2006) (Susan C. Thomson), 177–180
- Industrial Development Agency, Ireland, 241, 245
- Institute for Higher Education Policy, 53, 90, 254
- Institute for Research on Higher Education, University of Pennsylvania, 250
- Institute of Professional Development, and: John Sperling, 287
- Institute of Technology, Sligo, and: pharmaceutical research, 241
- “Integrity in the College Curriculum: A Report to the Academic Community” (Association of American Colleges) (1985), 302
- Interdisciplinary Curriculum: Newly established University of Minnesota Rochester has a radically different approach to higher education* (May 2011) (Kathy Witkowsky), 39–43
- Interest in Performance-Based Budgeting Has Faded: Update* (March 2008) (William Trombley), 145
- Inter-University Council of Ohio, 183
- Interview: Clark Kerr—principal architect of the California Master Plan for Higher Education* (spring 1993) (interviewed by Patrick M. Callan), 259–261
- Interview: Derek Bok—former president of Harvard University discusses the commercialization of higher education* (summer 2003) (interviewed by Kathy Witkowsky), 281–283
- Interview: John Sperling—founder of the Institute of Professional Development, and the University of Phoenix, discusses the field of for-profit higher education* (fall 1998) (interviewed by Carl Irving), 287–290
- Investing the Stimulus: Metropolitan State College of Denver uses federal funding to reposition itself for the future* (May 2010) (Kathy Witkowsky), 129–132
- Irish Federation of University Teachers, 239, 244
- Irish Universities Association, 240, 241, 242
- Iron Triangle, The, and: John Immerwahr, 301; cost, access and quality, 301, 318
- Irving, Carl, on: John Sperling (interview), 287–290
- Is a college education necessary to be successful?* (table), 317
- Is it a Shell Game? Colorado's controversial new way of handing out its higher education money* (winter 2007) (Susan C. Thomson), 157–160
- Ivy Tech Community College, Indiana, 52; and: articulation agreement with WGU, 55; first-generation college-goers, 55; reinventing Indiana public schooling, 177; transformation from Ivy Tech State College, 179; cooperative arrangement with Vincennes University, 180; changing demographics, 180
- Jackson State Community College, 101
- Jackson, David, and: Ohio's loss of graduates, 181; eliminating duplicate programs, 185
- Jackson, Debra, and: funding cuts in South Carolina, 145
- James F. and Marion L. Miller Foundation, 176
- Jamestown Community College, 79
- Jarvis, Richard, and: El Paso Collaborative for Academic Excellence, 61; appeal of higher education vouchers, 156
- Jenkins, Scott, and: Western Governors University, 52, 53
- Jennings, Mike, and: faculty compensation in Ireland, 243, 247; over-emphasis on research and development, 245; administrator salaries, 248; (photo), 248

- Jobs for the Future, and: the Early College Initiative, 66, 67
- John Carroll University, and: Woodrow Wilson Teaching Fellowship program, 72
- Johnson, Bruce, and: government control of higher education in Ohio, 183; (photo), 185
- Johnson, Dennis, and: Oregon Opportunity Grants, funding for, 175, 176; funding scholarships through private donations, 176
- Johnson, Janet, and: Rio Salado College, 76
- Johnstone, Douglas “Chip,” (photo), 46; and: Western Governors University, 47, 49, 50
- Johnstone, Sally, and: part-time faculty at online institutions, 75
- Jones, Dennis (NCHEMS), and: strategies for federal stimulus funds, 129, 130; graduation goals in Tennessee, 148; Oregon’s “shared responsibility” model, 174
- Jones, Dennis (Florida chiropractor), and: proposed chiropractic school at Florida State University, 199
- Jones, James, and: male enrollment at Trinity College, Hartford Connecticut, 118
- Jones, Robert A., on: Berea College, 15–18; Virginia community colleges, and reduced funding, 85–88; University of New Mexico Graduation Project, 109–113; declining male enrollment and academic achievement, 115–119; performance-based college appropriations in Tennessee, 147–150; Virginia higher education restructuring, 203–208
- Jones, Samuel E., and: College of William and Mary, 206
- Jones, Stan, and: Complete College Tennessee Act, 147, 148; (photo), 150, 178; Indiana’s community college system, 177, 180; Indiana’s 21st Century Scholars program, 179; Indiana Education Roundtable, 179
- Jones, Steven, and: academic freedom, 276
- Jordan, Stephen M., (photo), 129, 160; and: Metropolitan State College of Denver, allocation of resources in recession, 129; Rightsizing with Technology initiative, 130; investment of federal stimulus funds, 131; making the most of scarce resources, 132; support for voucher idea, 156; fee-for-service policy, 158, 160; College Opportunity Fund, 159
- Joyce, Kevin, and: tuition legislation in Illinois, 161; pro-higher education coalition in state legislature, 166
- Joyner, Don, and: East Carolina University’s retention efforts, 103, 105, 108; working and maintaining full class loads, 104; (photo), 104
- Justice, David O., and: Frank Lloyd Wright School of Architecture, 9
- Kaersvang, Lynn, and: Stephen Jordan, Metropolitan State College of Denver, 130; faculty interest in new technology, 131; (photo), 132
- Kallick, David, and: cuts in state aid to SUNY, 222
- Kamen, Dean, 27
- Kaminski, Jan, 228
- Kang, Sung-Mo (Steve), and: UC Merced, 36, 37
- Kangas, W. Randall, and: “Truth in Tuition” plan, Illinois, 162; high-tuition/high-aid policy, 164; few complaints about rising tuition, 165
- Kanter, Martha, and: federal stimulus funds for higher education, 250; graduation initiative, importance of community colleges, 252; regulations as consumer protections, 254; (photo), 254; presidential call to action, 255
- Kantor, Shawn, 37
- Kaplan University, 253
- Kaplan, James L., (photo), 163; 166
- Karr, Cindy (photography), 19–24
- Kashan, Omid, 234
- Kassig, Ed, and: Woodrow Wilson teaching fellowship, 71; (photo), 72
- Kaufman, Len (photography), 214–216
- Kay, Jack, 113
- Kaz, Liz, 74
- Keeping Them in College: East Carolina University’s efforts to improve retention and graduation rates* (fall 2006) (Don Campbell), 103–108
- Kendall, Cliff, (photo), 209; and: University System of Maryland’s “effectiveness and efficiency” effort, 209, 211
- Kenley, Luke, and: skepticism about Indiana’s Core 40 program, 179; establishing community colleges, 180
- Kennesaw State University, and: enrollment increase, 167; HOPE scholarships, 170; budgetary problems, 171
- Kent State University, 182, 184
- Kentucky Chamber of Commerce, 194
- Kentucky Community and Technical College System (KCTCS), and: rapid enrollment growth, 191, 194; authority for state’s community colleges, 194; cooperation with industry, 195; tuition increase, 196
- Kentucky Council on Postsecondary Education, and: graduation targets, 126, 194; undergraduate enrollment increase in 2005, 191; “Bucks for Brains” and other trust funds to finance education reforms, 191, 193; effort to increase number of bachelor’s degrees, 194; state legislature, and tuition hikes, 195; concern over cost of higher education, 196
- Kentucky State, 127, 193
- Kentucky Virtual University (KVU), 292
- Kentucky’s Reforms Produce Mixed Results: Update* (May 2008) (William Trombley), 194–195
- Kentucky’s Rocky Road: Recent reform legislation produces results, but faces tough challenges* (fall 2005) (Kay Mills), 191–196
- Kerns, David, and: Olin College, 29
- Kerr, Clark, (photo), 135, 259; and: California’s 1960 Master Plan for Higher Education, 135; (interview), 259–261
- Keynes, John Maynard, 271
- Khieu, Sreirath, (photo), 15; and: Berea College, 16
- Kilgallen, Dorothy, 277
- Killing Academic Freedom Softly: The muzzling of professors who do not enjoy the luxury of tenure* (fall 2005) (David L. Kirp), 285–286
- King, Cheryl, and: literacy programs in Kentucky, 195; (photo), 196
- King, Jacqueline, 118
- King, Jim, 199
- King, Keith, and: Colorado’s higher education voucher plan, 152
- Kirp, David L., on: academic freedom and non-tenured professors, 285–286
- Kirst, Michael W., and: accountability in higher education, 104; six-year degree completion, 108; on: college preparation and the senior year of high school, 263–266
- Kirwan, William E. “Brit,” and: higher education reform in Ohio, 183; “effectiveness and efficiency” effort at The University System of Maryland, 209; rising enrollments, importance of increasing need-based financial aid, 211; controlling costs, 212; (photo), 212
- Kleeman, Sue, 165
- Klor de Alva, Jorge, 288
- Kneedler, Lane, and: Virginia higher education restructuring, 207
- Koch, Chris, 169
- Koester, Axel (photography), 89–93
- Kopp, Nancy, 211
- Kulongoski, Ted, and: ambitious educational goals for the state of Oregon, 173, 175
- Lafta, Riyadh, and: academic freedom, 278
- LaGuardia by the Numbers* (table), 80
- LaGuardia Community College, and: early colleges, 63, 64, 66–68; diversity of enrollment, 79, 80; renovations, 80; growth since

- 1971, 81; writing center, 81; reduced funding under Mayor Giuliani, 82; pursuit of grant funding, 83; adult and continuing education, 84
- LaGuardia, Fiorello, 79
- Lakeland Community College, 184
- Lambert, Angie, (photo), 47; and: WGU, 49, 50
- Lambright, Melissa, (photo), 179
- Lamm, Peggy, and: Colorado's voucher program for higher education, 151; low college attendance, 152
- Lamont, Thomas, and: funding cuts in Illinois, 166
- Lancaster University, 232
- Lane Community College, 175; and: consequences of budget cuts, 176
- Langer, Jenna, and: Colorado's College Opportunity Fund, 157
- Laramie, Bill, and: Berea College, 18
- Larson, Jeff, 291
- Larson, Toni, 154
- Lavallee, Rory, (photo), 87; and: Tidewater Community College's automotive technology center, 87
- Layzell, Thomas, and: Kentucky higher education reforms, 192
- LEAP (Leveraging Educational Assistance Partnership), and: need-based financial aid, 169; Clinton administration policy, 297
- Leavitt, Michael, and: Western Governors University, 45; WGU Indiana, 51
- Lee University, 167
- Lee, David V., and: changes to HOPE scholarship eligibility, 170
- Legislative Analyst's Office (LAO), and: UC Merced, 36; skepticism about "Tidal Wave II," 135
- Lehmkuhle, Stephen, (photo), 39; and: University of Minnesota Rochester, exclusive focus on health sciences, 39, 40; measuring success, 41; improved retention rates, 43
- Lentsch, Eric, 193
- Leonore Annenberg Fellowship, 70
- Levenson, David (photography), 229–232, 234–236
- Levin, Carl, and: McCarthyism, 275–277, 279
- Levine, Arthur E., (photo), 69; and: teaching fellowships, Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation, 69; involvement of states as partners, 70; teacher assessments, 71; state-by-state strategy, 72
- Liguori, Ralph, 62
- Lincoln University, 225
- Lindsey Wilson College, 194
- Lindsey, Chuck, and: faculty contracts, Florida Gulf Coast University, 21, 23, 24
- Linfield College, and: private donations to fill budget gaps, 176
- Lingenfelter, Paul, and: advantages of state aid over institutional aid, 154; tuition in Colorado, 155; Illinois' "Truth in Tuition" plan, 162
- Listhaus, Aaron, 64, 67
- Liu, Carol, (photo), 123; and: Charles Reed, 123
- London Metropolitan University, 235
- London School of Economics, and: proportion of graduate students, 232
- London South Bank University, 230
- Longanecker, David, and: hype surrounding establishment of WGU, 46; learning from WGU's example, 47; Rio Salado College, 76; establishment of UC Merced, 136; lack of urgency in California, 137; need for state-level performance measures, 139; Colorado's higher education voucher plan, 151, 154, 156; tuition flexibility in Colorado, 155
- Lorain County Community College, and: Ohio joint degree program, 184
- Lord Browne of Madingley, 235
- lottery revenues: as funding source for Georgia's HOPE scholarship program, 167–171; as funding source for Oregon's Opportunity Grant program, 173; as funding source for Florida's Bright Futures program, 215; and regressive aspect of, 297, 299
- Lowenhaupt, Tom, 82
- Loyola College in Maryland, 29
- Lubbers, Teresa, and: WGU Indiana, 53
- Lumina Foundation for Education, and: WGU Indiana, 51, 53; Virginia higher education, 86; Achieving the Dream program, 86; Complete College Tennessee Act, 147; grant to Ohio, 147; Obama administration graduation initiative, 256; national goal for degree attainment, 305
- Lustig, Jeff, and: California Master Plan for Higher Education, 137
- MacCraith, Brian, (photo), 244; and: support for commercially oriented academic research, 245
- Maeroff, Gene I., on: online learning, and tailoring college to the needs of working adults, 291–293
- Major, John, and: imposition of tuition in England, 235
- Making the Middle Class: Don't let the recession fool you—postsecondary education is more valuable than ever* (December 2010) (Anthony P. Carnevale and Michelle Melton), 321–323
- Male Share of Bachelor's Degrees by State: 2002* (chart), 118
- Male Share of Higher Education Enrollments: 1929 to 2002* (chart), 116
- Maloney, Ed, 166
- Manchester Metropolitan University, 234
- Manchin, Joe, and: college completion initiative, 307
- Mann, Michael, 128
- Manning, Sylvia, and: guaranteed tuition, 162
- Mantel, Fabian, (photo), 11; and: Frank Lloyd Wright School of Architecture, 11, 14
- Marcus, Jon, on: Olin College, 25–31; Northern Kentucky University, 125–128; Ohio, and reform of public higher education, 181–185; Virginia, and impact of economic downturn on public education, 187–190; Florida, and changes in governance of public education, 197–202; Florida, and increased demand for higher education in a time of budget cuts, 213–216; California's budget problems, and huge fee increases at public universities, 217–220; New York public university systems, overcrowding and lack of funding, 221–224; British Universities, and new tuition polices, 229–232; British universities, and massive fee increases, 233–236; Ireland, and benefits from investing heavily in higher education, 237–242; Ireland, and the effect of economic downturn, 243–248; Obama administration, and higher education policy, 249–256
- Margulies, Lynn, 276
- Maricopa Community College District, and: Rio Salado College, 73–77, 92
- Marmon, Linda, (photo), 109; and: University of New Mexico Graduation Project, 110, 111
- Marshall University, 307
- Martinez, Monica, 59
- Math Emporium, and: use of technology in large-enrollment classes, 93; Virginia Tech, 95–98
- Math Emporium: The use of technology has changed the way Virginia Tech's introductory math classes are taught* (winter 2005) (Kay Mills), 95–98
- Math Instruction at Virginia Tech: Update* (May 2008) (Todd Sallo), 97
- Matterson, John (photography), 233
- Matthews, Dewayne, and: performance-based funding in Tennessee, 147
- Matthews, Peter (photography), 237–247
- Maxey, James, and: gender imbalance in advanced degrees, 116, 118
- Maxwell, David, and: South Carolina's 29 measures, 142
- May, Joe, and: Colorado's higher education voucher plan, 154, 155
- Mayo Clinic, and: University of Minnesota Rochester, 40–43

Mazza, Bill, and: tutors at LaGuardia Community College, 81; (photo), 84

McCabe, Robert, and: developing new ways of delivering education, 88

McCall, Mike, (photo), 193; and: Kentucky Community and Technical College System, 194, 195

McCallin, Nancy, and: Colorado's higher education voucher plan, 155, 159

McCarthy, Joseph, and: subversive activities panel, 275; attacks on liberal academics, 277; academic freedom, 285

McCarthyism, and: post-9/11 period in higher education, 275, 277, 278, 285

McClary, Harrison (photography), 102

McConnell, Danni, 185

McCoy, Mary, and: interdisciplinary studies at University of Minnesota Rochester, 40; (photo), 41

McDonald, David, (photo), 173; and: Oregon Opportunity Grants, 174

McGuinness, Aims Jr., and: higher education reform in Kentucky, 191; adult education, 195

McKinney, Kim, (photo), 177

McMaken, Ryan, 153

McPherson, Michael, 117

McTarnaghan, Roy E., and: building Florida Gulf Coast University, 19; distance education, 20; private fundraising effort, 21; lack of flexibility from legislators, 22; faculty contracts, 24; (photo), 24
Measuring Up 2000, 165
Measuring Up 2002, 152
Measuring Up 2004, 165
Measuring Up 2008, 190

Medical University of South Carolina, 142, 144, 145

Mehlhoff, Aaron, 6

Mellow, Gail, and: LaGuardia Community College, 79; (photo), 80; enrollment, 81; career paths for students, 83, 84

Melton, Michelle, on: value of postsecondary education, 321–323

Mendenhall, Robert, (photo), 45, 52; and: increasing enrollment at WGU, 46; U.S. Secretary of Education's Commission on the Future of Higher Education, 47; a new model for higher education, 48, 55; expansion of degree programs at WGU, 49; competency programs eligible for federal financial aid, 49; access for working adults, 50; WGU Indiana, 51, 52; state-by-state model, 53

Merisotis, Jamie, and: Lumina Foundation for Education, startup funding for WGU Indiana, 53; praise for Virginia community colleges, 86; Obama administration's higher education goals, 256; (photo), 256

Mesa State College, 153, 156

Metropolitan State College of Denver (Metro State), and: federal stimulus funding, 129, 130; Bruce Benson, support for voucher proposal, 152; College Opportunity Fund, 157; state funding per student credit hour, 158

Meyers, Terry, and: responses to financial crisis, 188, 189; faculty salaries, 189; (photo), 190

Miami Dade College, and: diversity of enrollment, overcrowding, 214; tuition and affordability, 216

Michelson, Kelly, and: law enforcement program at Rio Salado College, 74

Michigan Manufacturing Training Network, and: Michigan Virtual University, 291

Michigan Merit Scholarships, and: merit-based aid, 297, 298

Michigan State University, and: Woodrow Wilson Teaching Fellowship program, 72; 127; universities as engines of social change, 228; use of online courses to accelerate workforce development, 291

Michigan Virtual Automotive College, and: cooperation from automakers, 291; Michigan Virtual University (MVU), 291

Michigan Virtual University (MVU), and: private training providers, 291; Michigan Virtual High School, 291, 292

Middle College National Consortium, and: establishing early colleges, 67, 68

Milas, Lawrence, and: Olin College, 25–27

Milios, John, and: academic freedom, 278

Miller, Ben, 255, 256

Miller, Donald, 193

Miller, George, 254

Miller, Harris, and: for-profit colleges, 252–254

Miller, Margaret, 47

Miller, Richard, (photo), 25; and: Olin College, 26–30

Miller, Zell, and: Georgia HOPE scholarship, 167, 168, 171; (photo), 169

Mills, Gerald, and: role of the university system in the Irish economy, 239

Mills, Kay, on: distance learning, and use of technology in redesigned university classes, 89–94; Virginia Tech's Math Emporium, 95–98; Tennessee community colleges, and use of technology in developmental courses, 99–102; Kentucky, and reform legislation for higher education, 191–196; University System of Maryland, and campaign to increase student aid, 209–212; Pennsylvania, and reduced aid for higher education, 225–228

MIT, 29, 31, 286, 314

Miyoshi, Kazu, and: adult education at LaGuardia Community College, 84

Monetary Assistance Program (MAP), and: need-based grants in Illinois, and funding cuts, 161, 164, 165

Moody, Michael, 29

Moon, Sidney, 72

Moore, Anne, and: Virginia Tech's Math Emporium, 98

Moore, Michael, 192

Moore, Sue Hodges, (photo), 126; and: North Kentucky University, 128

Moore, Valeria, (photo), 99; and: East Carolina University retention efforts, 105

Moran, Kathy, 72

Morehead State University, and: reform legislation in Kentucky, 191–196

Moreno, Christian, and: students leaving college because of rising tuition, 216

Morgan, John, and: performance-based funding in Tennessee, 147; competition for resources, 149; (photo), 149; rewarding better performance, 150

Morris, Jermaine, and: overcrowding at New York's public universities, 222

Mortenson, Tom, (photo), 115; and: declining number of male students on American campuses, 115–119; college affordability in Colorado, 152

Mosby, Warren, 77

Moscar, Lauren, (photo), 105; and: retention efforts at East Carolina University, 108

Munitz, Barry, and: lack of legislative support for higher education in California, 136; K–12 remediation effort, 139

Murdoch, Duncan, and: Olin College, 29

Murphy, Sarah, and: Frank Lloyd Wright School of Architecture, 9, 10, 13

Murphy, Todd, (photo), 177

Mustard, David, and: unintended consequences of HOPE scholarship, 169

Myers, Shelly, and: retention and graduation efforts at East Carolina University, 104, 106, 107; (photo), 107

- Natalicio, Diana S., and: El Paso Collaborative for Academic Excellence, 58–62; (photo), 59
- National Academy of Engineering, 27, 193
- National Academy of Sciences, 276
- National Alliance of Community and Technical Colleges, 88
- National Architectural Accrediting Board (NAAB), and: Frank Lloyd Wright School of Architecture, 11, 12
- National Association for College Admission Counseling, 118, 310
- National Association of College and University Business Officers, 145, 189, 190
- National Association of Independent Colleges and Universities (NAICU), and: opposition to national student database, 107; tuition increases at private colleges, 190; student-loan reform 251; money spent on federal lobbying, 253
- National Association of State Student Grant and Aid Programs, and: survey of need-based student aid, 165; financial aid program in Indiana, 177
- National Center for Academic Transformation (NCAT), and: WGU, 46; national program for online instruction, 92; Cal Poly Pomona, 93; Virginia Tech's Math Emporium, 95, 97; Tennessee community colleges, course redesigns, 99, 101, 102
- National Center for Higher Education Management Systems (NCHEMS), 46, 89, 92, 94, 129, 148; and: insufficient state support for Colorado public colleges, 160; 174, 192; and: Kentucky higher education reform, 194; Obama administration's graduation initiative, 252
- National Center for Public Policy and Higher Education, and: state-by-state report cards, 139; Tennessee's failing grade in affordability, 147; college attendance in Colorado, 152; Illinois' top ranking in Measuring Up 2000, 165; dramatic tuition increases over 25 years, 190; the college-readiness problem, 267; determinants of the success of institutions, 307; collaboration with Public Agenda, 315
- National Competitiveness Council of Ireland, 237
- National Governors Association, 307
- National Longitudinal Study, 264
- National Science Foundation (NSF), and: reform of engineering education, 27; graduate research fellowships, 29; El Paso Collaborative for Academic Excellence, 57, 61; rankings, federal funds for research, 193, 195; Science Foundation Ireland, 240, 244
- National University of Ireland, Galway, 238–241, 246
- National University of Ireland, Maynooth, 239, 246, 248
- Navarro, M. Susana, (photo), 58; and: El Paso Collaborative for Academic Excellence, 58–62
- Neace, Amanda, (photo), 127; and: changes at North Kentucky University, 128
- Nelson A. Rockefeller Institute, and: use of performance measures by states, 142; 146
- Nelson, Robin (photography), 125, 167
- Nester, Amanda, (photo), 180
- Neuhauser, Claudia, (photo), 40; and: University of Minnesota Rochester, 39, 40, 43
- New Campus Still Faces Obstacles: After being postponed for a year, UC Merced hopes to open in fall 2005 (spring 2004)* (William Trombley), 33–38
- New River Community College, 86, 87
- New Teacher Education: Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation program brings change, one state at a time* (May 2010) (Susan C. Thomson), 69–72
- New York University (NYU), 222, 224, 286
- Nguyen, Que Anh, and: National Science Foundation graduate research fellowship, 29
- Niagara County Community College, 99
- Nickel, Shelley, and: financial pressure on HOPE scholarship program, 168, 171; (photo), 171
- Nietzel, Michael, and: budget cuts, Kentucky higher education, 192
- Nixon, Richard, and: Keynesian economics, 271
- Nolan, Philip, (photo), 246; and: choices for Irish universities to rebound, 248
- Noland, Brian, on: creating a sustainable public agenda for higher education, 305–307
- North Carolina New Schools Project, 67
- North Carolina State University, 103
- North Central Association of Colleges and Schools, and: accreditation of Frank Lloyd Wright School of Architecture, 9, 11, 12; approval of master's degree programs at Metropolitan State College of Denver, 132; accreditation of American InterContinental University, 254; accreditation of University of Phoenix, 287
- Northeast Ohio Technology Coalition, 182
- Northeast State Community College, 100
- Northeastern Illinois University, and: part-time students, 162; tuition policy, 164
- Northeastern Ohio Universities Colleges of Medicine and Pharmacy, and: partnership with University of Akron, 184
- Northern Illinois University, 165
- Northern Kentucky University (NKU), and: community engagement, 125–128, 194; funding under Bucks for Brains program, 193, 195, 196
- Northup, Steve (photography), 3
- Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities, and: accreditation of Western Governors University, 47
- Nosek, Stan, and: faculty salaries, 189; efficient use of facilities, 189; raising tuition and aid, 190
- Not Ready for College: States must have a systemic, comprehensive agenda for college preparation* (December 2010) (David Spence), 267–269
- Novak, Richard, and: governing board in Florida to establish higher education policy, 201, 202
- O'Bannon, Frank, 180
- O'Connell, Jack, and: Charles Reed, 121
- O'Neil, Robert M., on: Academic freedom, and effects of anti-terrorism measures on higher education, 275–279
- O'Reilly, Bill, and: defense of academic freedom, 277; opposition to Ward Churchill, 285
- O'Riordan, Megan, and: Ireland, effect of austerity measures on students, 244, 247
- Obama, Barack, and: Woodrow Wilson teaching fellowships, 72; support for community colleges, 85; increasing the number of college graduates in U.S., 224; (photo), 249, 250; higher education policy in first two years of administration, 249–256; direct student loans, 251; loan-subsidy savings for community colleges, 251; American Graduation Initiative, 251; “gainful-employment” rule, 252; Margaret Spellings, 253; increased federal oversight of higher education, 254, 255; College Access and Completion Fund, 255; 2009 fiscal stimulus package, 272, 273
- Obergfell, Dennis, 178
- Obrecht, Paul, and: St. John's College, 5
- Odell, Margaret, and: St. John's College, 8
- Office for Fair Access (OFFA), and: financial aid for low-income students in England, 232, 235
- Ohio Business Roundtable, 182
- Ohio Skills Bank, 184
- Ohio State University, and: limited faculty support for academic technology, 21; emphasis on science and engineering, 34; 35; Woodrow Wilson Teaching Fellowship program, 72; response to economic recession, 181; 183; cooperation with Ohio University, 184; renovated library, 185; faculty salaries, 193

Ohio University, and: cooperation with Ohio State University, 184; degree-completion agreement with Columbus State, 184; 188

Ohio's Brain Drain: Reform of public higher education is intended to change perceptions and retain graduates (May 2010) (Jon Marcus), 181–185

Olin College, 25–31

Olin College: Update (April 2009) (Todd Sallo), 28–29

Online Instruction Proliferates on Campus: Update (July 2008) (Todd Sallo), 92–93

online learning: at Florida Gulf Coast University, faculty concerns, 20, 21; at Ohio State University, and limited faculty enthusiasm for, 21; at Western Governors University, and spreading popularity of, 45, 46, 48; at Empire State College, 47; and curriculum from for-profit providers, 47; and accreditation of WGU's teachers college, 49; and WGU Indiana, 51, 52; and Rio Salado College, 73, 76; and working adults, 75; and reliance on part-time faculty, 75; and availability of instructors, 76; and student "e-portfolios" at LaGuardia Community College, 83; at Virginia community colleges, 87; and redesigned courses at Cal Poly Pomona, 89; and national effort, Center for Academic Transformation, 89; and advantages of, 90; and faculty support for, 91; and national proliferation of, 92–94; and Virginia Tech's Math Emporium, 95; and faculty opposition in Tennessee, 188; and increased enrollment at California University of Pennsylvania, 227; and Obama administration policy to boost graduation rates, 251; and profitability of, 289; and workforce development, overcoming obstacles to college attendance, 291; and growing popularity of, 292, 293. See also distance education, technology

The Online Learning Boom: Tailoring college to the needs of working adults (spring 2003) (Gene I. Maeroff), 291–293

Opportunity Grants, Oregon, and: higher education vouchers, 152; full implementation, popularity, 173, 174; worsening economy, program cutbacks, 174–176; funding from private donations, 176

Oregon Student Assistance Commission (OSAC), and: lack of funding for Opportunity Grant program, 174, 175; lobbying by Oregon Business Council, 176; privately funded scholarships, 176

Oregon University System (OUS), 156, 173; and: Opportunity Grant, 174; funding cuts, 176

Orfield, Gary, 169

Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD), Ireland, and: economic value of higher education, 237; consequences of rising incomes, 238; literacy rates, 246; conference on austerity measures, 248

OSAC. See Oregon Student Assistance Commission

OUS. See Oregon University System

"Outcome Funding": Tennessee experiments with a performance-based approach to college appropriations (May 2011) (Robert A. Jones), 147–150

Overcrowded and Underfunded: New York's public university systems, and beleaguered students, are an extreme example of national trends (December 2009) (Jon Marcus), 221–224

Owens, Bill, and: blue ribbon panel on higher education, 151, 158; support for Colorado voucher plan, 152; requested budget increase, 160

Oxford, University of, and: establishment of fixed tuition, 230; lobbying for differential tuition, 231; increase in number of foreign students, 231; increase in graduate enrollment, 232; elite universities charging maximum tuition, 235; 236, 240; Tariq Ramadan, 277, 278

Pacheco, Arturo, and: University of Texas–El Paso, 58; teacher education, El Paso Collaborative for Academic Excellence, 60, 61; higher education and K–12, 62; (photo), 62

Padrón, Eduardo, (photo), 214; and: open-door policy at community colleges, 214; tuition, low-income students, 216

Padron, Nicole, 175

Pallavacini, Maria, and: UC Merced, 33–35; (photo), 34

Palmer, Charlotte, and: increased fees at British universities, 234, 236

Paquin, Adrienne, (photo), 167; and: Georgia HOPE scholarship, 167

Paquin, Brenda, (photo), 167; and: Georgia HOPE scholarship, 167

Paquin, Michelle, (photo), 167

Parra, Alicia, and: El Paso Collaborative for Academic Excellence, 58, 62

Parson, Jack, and: South Carolina Commission on Higher Education 141; performance-based budgeting, 146

participation: and low rates among male students, 117; in California, and declining rates, racial gap, 135; in Colorado, and attempts to increase, 151; among low-income and minority students, and Colorado's voucher program, 153, 155, 158, 159; and Oregon's Opportunity Grant program, 173; in Oregon, and low rankings, 174; in Indiana, and efforts to increase, 177; in England, and debt as a deterrent for low-income students, 230; and demand for university-educated workers in England, 232; in Ireland, and elimination of tuition for undergraduates, 237; as an accountability indicator, 306

partnership: and El Paso Collaborative for Academic Excellence, 57; between K–12 and postsecondary education, 60, 62; between school districts and historically black colleges, 67; agreements between Rio Salado College and area employers, corporations and government agencies, 74, 76; between Rio Salado College and four-year institutions, 77; between Tidewater Community College and major auto manufacturers, 87; among Ohio universities for high-tech research, 184; among Irish universities and corporations, 240, 244; linking colleges with corporations, Obama administration policy, 251, 255; between universities and venture capitalists, 282; between federal and state governments for need-based grant programs, 297; and West Virginia higher education policy, 305–307. See also collaboration

Pass Rates on Mathematics Proficiency Exams: El Paso Collaborative for Academic Excellence (chart), 60

Pass Rates on Reading Proficiency Exams: El Paso Collaborative for Academic Excellence (chart), 59

Pataki, George, 104

Paterson, David, 223, 224

Patterson, Brett (photography), 173–176

Patton, Paul, and: Kentucky higher education reform, 191, 192, 194, 196

Paul, Jay (photography), 85, 87, 88, 95–98

Pauly, Susan, 144

Pavlak, Thomas, and: Georgia HOPE scholarship, 169

Payne, Wade (photography), 99–102, 147–150

Pegler, Westbrook, 277

Pell grants: and tuition at Western Governors University, 53; and erosion in value, 116; and private nonprofit colleges in Colorado, 159; and numbers of recipients in Illinois, 164; and Georgia HOPE scholarship program, 168–170; as an offset for state shortfalls, 175; and increased funding under Obama administration, 250, 251, 253, 254; and private, for-profit schools, 252; and Republican opposition to expansion of, 256

Penley, Larry, and: Colorado's College Opportunity Fund, 159

Penn State (Pennsylvania State University); and: grant from Center for Academic Transformation, 89; quasi-independent, quasi-state status, 225; diminishing state support, 226, 228; high tuition, 226; efforts to reduce energy costs, 226

Pennsylvania Higher Education Assistance Agency (PHEAA), 228

- Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education, and: budget cuts, 225; tuition increase, 226; record enrollment growth, 227
- Performance-Based Budgeting: South Carolina's new plan mired in detail and confusion* (winter 1998) (William Trombley), 141–146
- performance budgeting: in Indiana, 53; in South Carolina, 141; increasing popularity nationally, 142; and accountability, 142; and “performance indicators,” 143; and fading interest in, 145; and institutions bearing cost of program, 146; in Tennessee, 147–149; and competition among institutions for limited funding, 150; based on outcomes, rather than enrollments, in Ohio, 183; and lack of, in California, 220; and states with public university funding tied to outcomes, 256
- Pernsteiner, George, and: Oregon's Opportunity Grant program, 173, 174; state budget cuts, failure to meet enrollment goals, 175, 176
- Perry, Douglas, (photo), 128; and: North Kentucky University, 128
- Peterson, Ray, (photo), 65; and: Bard High School Early College, 65
- Pew Charitable Trusts, and: El Paso Collaborative for Academic Excellence, 58, 61; Center for Academic Transformation, 89, 92, 94, 99; Math Emporium at Virginia Tech, 95
- Pew Learning and Technology Program, 89
- Phelan, Adele, (photo), 130; and: Metropolitan State College of Denver, 130; preparing for budget cuts, 131; political downside to self-sufficiency, 132
- Philip, Abigail, 83
- Phillips, John (photography), 73–77
- Pierce, Nathan, and: early colleges in Utah, 67, 68
- Pisa, Sheila, and: online instruction at Riverside Community College, 92
- “Plain Living”: Berea College makes a commitment to the welfare of its students and its community (summer 2004) (Robert A. Jones), 15–18
- Poysel, Jim, 26
- Poysel, Joy, and: Olin College, 26; Fulbright Scholarship, 29
- Policy Analysis for California Education, 135
- Policy Center on the First Year of College, 112
- Portch, Stephen R., (photo), 168; and: Georgia HOPE scholarship program, 168, 171; need-based aid, 170
- Porter, Dave, and: Berea College, 15; (photo), 18
- Portland State University, 174, 176
- Postsecondary Education Opportunity*, 115, 117
- Powell, Carl, and: technology initiative at Metropolitan State College of Denver, 130; political pushback, 131
- Powers, Lisa, 225
- preparation: of high school students and teachers, and El Paso Collaborative for Academic Excellence, 58, 62; as a pervasive problem in American higher education, 60; of teachers, and Woodrow Wilson Teaching Fellowship program, 72; in Virginia, and remedial courses at community colleges, 85, 86; and blaming students for problems with retention and completion; 107; and students who attend top-level institutions, 108; in California's K–12 system, poor performance, 138; and low levels at California community colleges, Cal-PASS initiative, 139; and Cal State standards test for 11th graders, 139; and statewide high school requirements in Indiana, 177; and Florida's “seamless” K–20 system, 198; and support for increased funding to middle schools, 256; and the high school “senior slump,” 263, 264; and re-conceptualizing the senior year to lead to postsecondary success, 265; and encouraging high school accreditation by state governments, 266; and need for comprehensive state agendas, readiness standards, 267; and need for remediation, even among students who pass a college-prep curriculum, 268; and effectiveness of K–12 teachers, 269; and state accountability systems, 269; in West Virginia, and efforts to improve, 306
- Prescott, Brian, and: Oregon's Opportunity Grant program, 174
- presidential compensation: in Florida, and ineffective legislative attempts to limit, 201; and controversy over escalation of, reasons for increases, 295, 296; as a focus of cost concerns, 303
- The Presidential Treatment: The Obama administration makes big advances, faces tough challenges, in higher education policy* (December 2010) (Jon Marcus), 249–256
- Preus, Camille, and: Oregon's Opportunity Grant program, state funding cuts, 175
- Protopsaltis, Spiros, and: doubts about Colorado's College Opportunity Fund, 157, 159; (photo), 159
- Pruitt, Ken, and: Florida higher education governance, 200, 201
- Public Agenda, and: public opinion polling, university spending, 189; John Immerwahr, 301; series of studies on higher education, 315; students who work and go to college, 316; interviews with college presidents, 318
- Public Policy Institute of California (PPIC); and: California state spending per bachelor's degree, 137; predicted shortfall of educated workers, 219
- Purdue University, 35; and: Woodrow Wilson Indiana Teaching Fellowship, 70–72; Stan Jones, 179; community colleges, 180
- Purdue, Sonny, and: funding shortfall for HOPE scholarships, 170
- Queens College (CUNY), 222
- A Quiet Counterrevolution: St. John's College teaches the classics—and only the classics* (spring 1999) (Kathy Witkowsky), 3–8
- Quiñones, Lisa (photography), 64, 65, 79–84
- Quintero, Alicia, 38
- Race to the Top, and: Obama administration higher education policy, 250, 255
- Raines, Shirley, and: outcome-based approach to university funding, 149
- Rainey, Jack, and: cooperative education program at LaGuardia Community College, 82
- Ramadan, Tariq, and: denial of U.S. visa, 277
- Ramsey, Eryn, 74
- Ramsey, James, and: Kentucky higher education reforms, 193
- Ransdell, Gary, and: cooperation among public colleges in Kentucky, 195
- Recessions Past and Present: Higher education struggles with state cuts, rising tuitions and a climate of uncertainty* (March 2009) (David W. Breneman), 271–273
- Redesigning the Basics: Tennessee's community colleges use technology to change their approach to developmental reading and math* (May 2010) (Kay Mills), 99–102
- Reed, Catherine, and: Charles Reed, 122
- Reed, Charles B., (photo), 121, 136, 217; (profile), 121–124; and: stable leadership at Cal State University, 136; access and completion, 138; remedial education, 139; advocacy for increasing resources for higher education, 140; higher education in California, competition for resources, 217; slashing enrollments at Cal State in response to state budget cuts, 218; no-confidence vote by faculty union, 219; labor unions, 220; Title I funding for universities, 220; frustration with Bright Futures scholarships, 298
- Reed, Jessica, (photo), 180
- Reed, Suellen, (photo), 178; and: Indiana Education Roundtable, 179
- Regis University, and: Colorado's College Opportunity Fund, 159
- Reich, Robert, and: effect of market forces on U.S. higher education, 231
- remedial education: and El Paso Collaborative for Academic Excellence, placement test for 11th graders, 61; at LaGuardia

- Community College, 81, 83; at Virginia community colleges, 85, 86, 88; in Tennessee, and NCAT grants for course redesigns in writing and math, 99; in Florida, and assessment of high school students, 100; and California's Basic Skills Initiative, 100; at Cal State, for majority of freshmen, 121; and poor K–12 preparation in California, 138; at Cal State, and attempts to reduce need for, 139; and Tennessee community colleges, 148; at Community College of Beaver County, in Pennsylvania, 228; and high percentages of Cal State freshmen requiring, 263; and low rates of college readiness, 267; and the senior year in high school, 268; and advantages of using a cohort model, 303
- Remote Access: Western Governors University offers "competency-based" higher education, at a distance* (spring 2006) (Kathy Witkowsky), 45–50
- Rendell, Ed, 225
- Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, and: Center for Academic Transformation, 89
- Research Challenge Trust Fund ("Bucks for Brains"), and: University of Kentucky, 191; endowed chairs, recruiting faculty, 193; uncertain future, 195
- retention: and high rates at Berea College, 16; and low rates in engineering education, efforts at UC Merced, 35; at University of Minnesota Rochester, and challenges of building a new program, 43; and high rates at WGU, 49; and Virginia's "student success snapshots," 86; and improvement at Cleveland State Community College in Tennessee, 99; and efforts by Education Commission of the States, 99, 100; at East Carolina University, and efforts to improve, 103–108; and effect of freshman seminar, on-campus housing, 105; among students who are minorities, 112; at Metropolitan State College of Denver, and efforts to improve, 129, 130; and South Carolina State University, 144; in Tennessee, and funding based on goals for improvement, 147, 149; and effect of Illinois' four-year tuition guarantee, 165; and Virginia higher education restructuring, 205, 207
- Reveley, Taylor, (photo), 187; and: College of William and Mary, hard economic times, 187, 188; campus construction projects, 189; opposition to layoffs, 190
- Reversal of Fortune: Ireland's "Celtic Tiger" economic miracle is followed by an epic downturn* (May 2011) (Jon Marcus), 243–248
- Rhoda, Richard, and: Tennessee Higher Education Commission, 148; performance-based funding, 149; (photo), 150
- Richter, Suzanne L., and: distance learning, Florida Gulf Coast University, 21; accreditation issues, 22; high number of faculty resignations, 24
- Ringel, Joan, and: uncertain value of Colorado's higher education vouchers, 152
- Rio Salado College, 73–77; and: compelling results in pilot project for online instruction, 92; distance learning classes, 93
- Rio Salado Is Going Strong: Update* (July 2008) (William Trombley), 76
- Rising Public Skepticism: Americans increasingly believe colleges care more about their bottom line than the educational needs of their students* (chart), 319
- Ritchie, Dan, 154
- Riter, Stephen, and: El Paso Collaborative for Academic Excellence, 60
- Ritter, Bill, and: higher education funding in Colorado, 160
- Riverside Community College, and: redesign of highest-enrollment math class, 92
- Roark, Anne C., on: the college application process, 309–314; choosing the right college, 312
- Roark, Christie, and: math classes on computer at Virginia Tech's Math Emporium, 96
- Robateau, Joseph, and: Bard High School Early College, 65
- Roberts, Carolyn, (photo), 198; and: authority of Florida Board of Governors, 199; access and quality, 200; lobbying by university presidents, 201
- Robinson, Ellen, and: tracking investments at Metropolitan State College of Denver, 130
- Robinson, Gail, 193
- Robinson, Michael (photography), 225, 227
- Roca, Maria, and: faculty contracts at Florida Gulf Coast University, 19, 23; educational technology, 20; engagement of faculty in research, 21
- Rock, Nyla, 66
- Rodi, Anthony F., and: robotics, 227
- Rodriguez, Sylvester, 63
- Rogan, Patricia, 72
- "Rolling Contracts" Instead of Tenure: Update* (March 2008) (William Trombley), 23
- Romer, Roy, and: founding of WGU, 45, 46; (photo), 50
- Romero, Ed, 155
- Rosenberg, Bert, and: early college, 64
- Rosenberg, Mark, 202
- Rossi, John, and: Virginia Tech's Math Emporium, 95; (photo), 96
- Roster, Tom (photography), 39–43
- Roy, Arnold, and: Frank Lloyd Wright School of Architecture, 9
- Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland, 241
- Royal Irish Academy, 238
- Ruffier, Joan, and: statewide governing body for Florida higher education, 199; (photo), 201
- Ruiz, Encarnacion, and: UC Merced, low-income students, 37
- Sacramento State University, 137; and: Institute for Higher Education Leadership & Policy, 137, 218
- SACS. See Southern Association of Colleges and Schools
- Sager, James, and: Oregon's Opportunity Grant program, 173; high cost of attending college, 174; (photo), 176
- Saha, Dhruba, and: student visa, LaGuardia Community College, 80, 81; (photo), 84
- Salisbury State University, 211
- Salk, Hannah, and: University of Minnesota Rochester, 41; ties to Mayo Clinic, 41, 42; (photo), 43
- Salk, Jonas, and: polio vaccine, 41
- Sallo, Todd, on: St. John's College, 7; Frank Lloyd Wright School of Architecture, 12–13; Berea College, 17; Olin College, 28–29; Western Governors University, 48–49; proliferation of online instruction in large introductory courses, 92–93; Virginia Tech, and the use of computers in math instruction, 97; East Carolina University, and efforts to improve graduation and retention rates, 106–107; University of New Mexico's Graduation Project, 112; the growing gender gap among college students, 117; (photography), 309
- Saltz, Aaron, 215
- Sami al-Arian, and: academic freedom, 276
- San Francisco State University, and: course reductions due to state budget cuts, 218
- Sandridge, Leonard, and: higher education restructuring in Virginia, 203, 208; (photo), 207
- Santa Fe Community College, and: pet projects of Florida legislators, 198
- SAT (SAT I, SAT II), 4, 31, 59, 143, 144, 168, 213, 222, 263–265, 267, 298, 311, 313
- Scarafiotti, Carol, 75
- Schath, Traci, and: Woodrow Wilson teaching fellowships, 71
- Schloemann, Colleen, (photo), 161; and: Illinois tuition guarantee, 162, 165; differential tuition charges, 163
- Schloemann, Greta, (photo), 161; and: graduating in four years to avoid tuition increase, 162; increase in required fees, 165; locked-in tuition rate, 166

- Schloemann, Mark, (photo), 161
- Schoellkopf, Jake (photography), 109–113
- Scholastic Assessment Test. See SAT
- Schwarzenegger, Arnold, and: UC Merced operating budget, 34; state budget deficit, cuts to higher education, 35; elimination of outreach efforts for UC and Cal State, 38; Charles Reed, six-year higher education compact, 124; series of education secretaries, 136; “compacts” between the state and universities, 138; proposed elimination of Cal Grant program, 218; warnings from faculty about budget cuts, 219; veto of legislation on foundation funding, 220
- Science Foundation Ireland (SFI), and: investment in research, 240, 244; Technology Innovation Development Award program, 245
- Scott, Jack, and: Charles Reed, lobbying efforts, 123, 136; becoming chancellor of California Community Colleges, 140
- The “Seamless System”: Florida’s flurry of dramatic changes in the governance of public education* (fall 2006) (Jon Marcus), 197–202
- Searcy, Rod (photography), 9–14, 33–38, 121, 123, 219
- Sebring, Amy, 207
- SECME (Southeastern Consortium for Minorities in Engineering), 67
- Segalova, Polina, and: National Science Foundation graduate research fellowship, 29
- The Senior Slump: Making the most of high school preparation* (fall 2000) (Michael W. Kirst), 263–266
- Setzler, Nikki G., and: support for performance-based budgeting, South Carolina, 141, 142, 145; (photo), 143
- Sexton, John, 286
- Shanghai Jiao Tong, and: rankings of world universities, 239, 246
- Shapiro, Douglas T., 298
- Shared Responsibility Model, and: Oregon’s Opportunity Grant program, 173; funding by the Oregon Business Council, 176
- Shay, Elaine (photography), 191, 193, 195, 196
- Sheehy, Colette, and: Virginia higher education restructuring, 206
- SHHEO. See State Higher Education Executive Officers
- Sheerman, Barry, 231
- Sheheen, Fred R., and: South Carolina’s performance indicators, 143, 144; (photo), 146
- Sheldon, Steve (photography), 63, 68
- Shelton, Gregory, 27
- Sheppard, Sheri, 27
- Shields, Vanessa, and: University of New Mexico’s Graduation Project, 109, 112; (photo), 113
- Shimasaki, Dale, and: competition for funding between community colleges and K–12 in California, 139
- Shinn, Larry, and: Berea College, 15; growth of endowment, 17; spending per student, 18
- Shiple, Al, and: Rio Salado College, ratio of full-time to part-time faculty, 76
- Shiple, Suzanne, and: Regents Bachelor of Arts program, West Virginia, 306
- Short, Paula, (photo), 102; and: systemwide redesign of courses in Tennessee, 102
- Shulman, Lee, and: Olin College governing board, 27
- Shulock, Nancy, and: California’s 1960 Master Plan for Higher Education, 137; compacts between universities and the state, 138; California’s higher education governance structure, 139; state budget deliberations, 218; predicted shortfall of educated workers, 219; lack of coordination among California’s higher education systems, 220
- Sidy, Victor, and: Frank Lloyd Wright School of Architecture, 12
- Siegel, Martha, (photo), 210; and: faculty workload increase, 210
- Simmons, Hunter, and: Virginia Tech’s Math Emporium, 96
- Simpson, Earl, 88
- Skaggs, David, and: implementation of Colorado’s higher education voucher program, 155
- Skidmore College, 166
- Slater, Gillian, and: objections to Britain’s top-up fee program, 231, 232
- Smalls, John E., and: performance-based budgeting in South Carolina, 142
- Smeaton, Alan, (photo), 244; and: explaining scientific work to general audiences, 245
- Smith, Adam, and: monopoly, 289
- Smith, Al, (photo), 108; and: East Carolina University, outreach to high schools, 108
- Smith, Bob, and: UC Merced, 33
- Smith, Dana (photography), 281
- Smith, Kris, and: retention efforts at East Carolina University, 105, 106
- Smith, Michael, and: South Carolina performance indicators, 144
- Smith, Phillip, (photo), 222; and: overcrowding on SUNY campuses, 222; outreach to political and business leaders, 223, 224
- Smith, Ron, and: Berea College fundraising, endowment, 18
- Smith, Steve, 235
- Smith, Vernon, (photo), 73; and: faculty at Rio Salado College, 76
- Smolka, Jennifer, and: WGU, faculty mentors, 48, 49
- Snyder, Tom, and: Ivy Tech, articulation agreement with WGU, 55
- Somers, Ophelia, (photo), 216; and: overcrowding at Miami Dade College, 216
- Sosa, Oscar (photography), 202
- South Carolina Commission on Higher Education, 141, 145
- South Carolina State University, 144
- South Carolina Statistics* (sidebar), 144
- South Carolina’s 29 Steps* (sidebar), 143
- Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS), and: accreditation of Florida Gulf Coast University, 22
- Southern Illinois University–Carbondale, 162, 163; and: increases in tuition and mandatory fees, 164, 165
- Southern Regional Education Board, (SREB), and: South Carolina, expenditures for four-year institutions, 142; goals for graduation rates, 256; efforts to improve college readiness, 267–269; college completion initiative, 307
- Souza, Pete (photography), 249
- Spanier, Graham, and: privatization of American public higher education, 225; (photo), 226; diminishing state support, 226, 228; fundraising efforts, 226; energy costs, 226
- Spellings Commission. See Commission on the Future of Higher Education
- Spellings, Margaret, and: political consulting firm, 253; Obama administration policy, 253, 254
- Spence, David, on: the need for states to have a comprehensive agenda for college preparation, 267–269
- Sperling, John G., (photo), 287; (interview), 287–290
- Spilde, Mary, and: reductions in Oregon state aid, 175, 176
- Spitzer, Eliot, and: resignation as governor of New York, 223
- Spurlock, Janie, and: Kentucky higher education reform legislation, 191; challenges of re-entering college, 196
- Squeeze Play 2007: How Parents and the Public Look at Higher Education Today*, 315–317
- Squeeze Play 2010: Continued Public Anxiety on Cost, Harsher Judgments on How Colleges Are Run*, 315
- Squires, John, and: redesign of math courses at Cleveland State Community College in Tennessee, 101, 102; (photo), 102
- SREB. See Southern Regional Education Board
- St. John’s College, 3–8
- St. John’s College: Update* (August 2007) (Todd Sallo), 7
- Stanford Bridge Project, 265
- Stanford University, 15, 27; and: Olin College graduates, 29; 35; Leonore Annenberg Fellowship, 70; Michael Kirst, 104, 108;

California's great research institutions, 260; online education, 293; high degree of selectivity, 310; 316

Starkey, John (photography), 177–180

State Board of Higher Education, Georgia, and: focus groups, 173

State Council of Higher Education for Virginia (SCHEV), and: state goals for higher education, 207

State Goals: Virginia's restructuring plan (sidebar), 205

State Higher Education Executive Officers (SHEEO), and: Paul Lingenfelter, 154, 155, 162; Pennsylvania's declining appropriations for public higher education, 226

State Student Assistance Commission of Indiana, and: Indiana's 21st Century Scholars program, 178

State Student Incentive Grant (SSIG), and: reauthorization of federal Higher Education Act, 297

State University of New York (SUNY), 20; and: Empire State College, distance learning, 47; state-funded online instruction program, 92; Nelson A. Rockefeller Institute study of performance measures, 142; unprecedented enrollment, tuition spike, 221; plummeting state allocations, changing demographic of students, 222; expansion of research, four-year degrees, 223; cost-cutting measures, collaboration with other institutions, 224

State University of New York (SUNY), campuses: Albany, 223; Binghamton, 127, 211, 223; New Paltz, 222; Stony Brook, 222, 223

State University of West Georgia, 167

State University Presidents Association, 197

Staudt, Kathy, 61

Staver, Kallisti, and: St. John's College, 7

Steady Growth at LaGuardia: Update (July 2008) (William Trombley), 83

Stefansson, Pamela, and: Frank Lloyd Wright School of Architecture, 11, 14

Stigers, Karen, and: Rio Salado College, 75 stimulus, federal: and Metropolitan State College of Denver, investment strategy, 129; as a short-term solution for higher education institutions, 130; and projects at Metro State, 131, 132; and Oregon's Opportunity Grant program, concerns over worsening economy, 175; and protecting Ohio's universities from state budget shortfall, 185; and California's budget crisis, 217; and need for additional federal support in California, 220; and New York, majority of funds allocated to K–12 schools, 222; and Pennsylvania, allocation to state universities and community colleges, 225; and Obama administration policies, 249; and temporary doubling of federal spending on higher education, 250; and use by only half of states to reduce tuition, 251; and the Keynesian economic model, uncertain future, 272, 273; as a short-term answer to state budget cuts, 322

Straayer, John, and: opposition to Colorado's College Opportunity Fund, 157; deferred maintenance at Colorado State, 158; changing political climate, 178

Strahorn, Eric, and: faculty contracts at Florida Gulf Coast University, 19, 24

Strickland, Ted, and: Ohio public higher education, 181; boards of trustees and lobbyists, 182; meeting with university and college presidents, 182; creating the University System of Ohio, 183; (photo), 184; protecting education from budget cuts, 185

Stuart, Cynthia, and: identifying students in danger of dropping out, 113

Stuart, David E., and: University of New Mexico's Graduation Project, 109; (photo), 110; attracting re-entry students, 110; Graduation Project's lean budget, 111; lack of imitators nationally, 112; current students in danger of leaving college, 113 student loans: and effect of growing debt on students' decision to drop out of college, 104; and Oregon's Shared Responsibility Model, 173; and effect of Opportunity Grants, 174; and University System of Maryland, efforts to reduce debt for low-income students, 211; and paying for tuition increases, 215; and private for-profit institutions, 224; and top-up tuition policy at British universities, 229, 235; and spiraling debt among British students, 230; subsidies, and expense to British government, 230, 236; and aversion to debt among lower socioeconomic groups, 235; and Obama administration reform, direct government lending, 250, 251; and high default rate at for-profit universities, 252; and transferring from for-profit to nonprofit institutions, 253, 254; and concerns that students are borrowing too much, 317

Students who sacrifice to get an education learn more and appreciate their education (chart), 316

Sullivan, Timothy X., and: Virginia higher education restructuring, 203; relationship between state funding and tuition increases, 204; (photo), 205; preference for charter status for the College of William and Mary, 208

Summers, Larry, and: controversial remarks, academic freedom, 285

SUNY. See State University of New York

Swentzell, Ralph, and: St. John's College, 5; (photo), 6

Swift, Jonathan, and: Trinity College, 239

Symington, Fife, 77

Syracuse University, 104

TABOR. See Colorado Taxpayer's Bill of Rights

Taft, Bob, 182

Taiz, Lillian, and: unpaid furloughs at California universities, 217; opposition to Chares Reed, 219; tax policy, 220

Taliesin, Taliesin West, and: Frank Lloyd Wright School of Architecture, 9; Taliesin Fellowship, 10; Taliesin in Wisconsin, 11; funding from visitors, 13; changes and renovations, 14

Tallahassee Community College, 213

Tanner, Kara, and: WGU, 52, 53; (photo), 55

Taylor, Brian, and: WGU, 50

Taylor, Mark, and: Georgia HOPE scholarship, 168

teacher education: and WGU teachers college, 45; and U.S. Department of Education grant, WGU, 46; and National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education, 49; and College of Education at University of Texas–El Paso, 60, 61, 62; and Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation, teaching fellowships, 69–72; and post-baccalaureate degree at Rio Salado College, 76; at Cal State University, 121, 122; and North Kentucky University, 125, 126; at Metropolitan State College of Denver, master's degree program, 132; and South Carolina's "performance indicators," 143, 144; under Florida's "seamless system," 198; and University of Phoenix, 288, 289; and online learning, 292, 293 technology: and development of online courses at Florida Gulf Coast University, 21; and Western Governors University, 45–47; and degree program at WGU, 51; and El Paso Collaborative for Academic Excellence, U.S. Department of Education grant, 57; and master's degree program at University of Texas–El Paso, 61; and institutional gains at Rio Salado College, 76; and use in classrooms at LaGuardia Community College, student mentors, 83; and programs at Virginia community colleges, 87, 88; and national effort to redesign large university classes, Center for Academic Transformation, 89, 90; and acceptance by pioneering faculty, 91–93; and use in math and other quantitative courses, 94; and Math Emporium at Virginia Tech, 95, 97; and use to mitigate effects of budget cuts, 97; and Mathematics Technology Center at University of Alabama, 98; use in redesigned reading and math classes at Tennessee community colleges, 99–102; as substitution for labor, 129; and Rightsizing with Technology initiative at Metropolitan State

- College of Denver, 129–131; and curricular change to achieve better learning outcomes, 303. See also distance education, online learning
- Technological Transformation: An ambitious national effort to use technology more effectively in large introductory university classes* (summer 2002) (Kay Mills), 89–94
- Temple University, 225
- Templin, Robert, (photo), 86; and: measuring student success, 86, 87
- Tennessee Board of Regents (TBR), and: National Center for Academic Transformation, 99; expanding redesigns for developmental courses, 102; John Morgan, 147
- Tennessee Higher Education Commission (THEC), and: performance-based funding, 148, 149
- tenure: and multi-year contracts, no-tenure policy at Florida Gulf Coast University, 19, 23, 24; and faculty contracts, part-time professors, 22; and decline in tenure-track jobs, 22; and five-year faculty contracts at Olin College, 25–29; and two-tier faculty system at University of Minnesota Rochester, 40; and no-tenure policy at Western Governors University, 49; at University of Texas–El Paso, and faculty involvement in K–12, 61, 62; and hiring of adjuncts and part-time faculty at Rio Salado College, 75, 77; and redefining the role of adjunct faculty in Virginia, 88; and cost savings through hiring of adjunct faculty, 90; and overdependence on adjunct faculty for first-year courses, 105; at North Kentucky University, and community service requirement for faculty, 125, 127; and post-tenure review of faculty in South Carolina, 144; and increasing part-time faculty to reduce costs, 158; and hiring of non-tenured faculty in Colorado, 189, 190; and hiring of part-time and adjunct faculty by University System of Maryland, 210; and increased reliance on adjunct faculty at SUNY, 222; and sharp reduction in number of new tenure-track positions, 273; and lack of academic freedom for non-tenured faculty, 285, 286; as a focus for cost concerns, 303
- Texas A&M, 193
- Texas Assessment of Academic Skills (TAAS), and: El Paso Collaborative for Academic Excellence, 57, 59
- Texas Assessment of Knowledge and Skills (TAKS), 60
- Texas Education Agency, and: El Paso Collaborative for Academic Excellence, 61
- Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board, and: El Paso Collaborative for Academic Excellence, 61
- Thelin, John, 193
- Thomas Edison State College, 75
- Thomas, Felicia Friendly, and: use of technology at Cal Poly Pomona, 91; online learning and instruction, 93; (photo), 94
- Thomas, Gareth, and: British plan to recover tuition costs from students, 235; (photo), 236
- Thomson, Susan C., on: Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation, and teacher education, 69–72; (photography), 71, 72; on: Colorado’s controversial College Opportunity Fund, 157–160; Illinois public universities, and four-year guaranteed tuition, 161–166; Indiana’s new community college system and college prep curriculum, 177–180
- Thor, Linda, and: innovation at Rio Salado College, 73–77; (photo), 77
- Thornhill, Tommy, and: St. John’s College, 6
- Thornly, Mary, and: underfunding of higher education in south Carolina, 143
- Thrasher, John, and: lobbying for University of Central Florida, 197–199; K–20 initiative, 198
- Tidal Wave II, and: California enrollment surge, 135, 136, 138, 259; Clark Kerr, 135, 259
- Tidewater Community College, and: “modular” assessment approach, 86; job training, outreach to employers, 87
- Tinto, Vincent, and: retention efforts at East Carolina University, 104, 105
- Todd, Lee Jr., (photo), 191; and: Kentucky higher education reform, 192, 193; funding cuts at University of Kentucky, 193, 195
- Tomlinson-Keasey, Carol, (photo), 33; and: UC Merced, 34; public higher education in underserved region, 36, 37
- Topping, Jeff (photography), 287
- Torgersen, Paul E., and: Virginia Tech’s Math Emporium, 98
- Towson University, and: faculty workload, 210; anticipated enrollment growth, 211
- Traina, Samuel J., and: Sierra Nevada Research Institute at UC Merced, 35
- Trani, Eugene, and: Virginia Commonwealth University, higher education restructuring, 206
- Travis, John, and: Charles Reed, 121; compact with Governor Schwarzenegger, 124
- Trends in Tuition at Illinois Public Universities* (table), 163
- Trident Technical College, 143
- Trinity College (Hartford, Connecticut), 118
- Trinity College Dublin, and: Irish investment in higher education, emphasis on research, 237–242; Centre for Research on Adaptive Nanostructures and Nanodevices, 244; declining rankings, 246; moratorium on staff promotions, 248
- Troha, John (photography), 255
- Trombley, William, on: Florida Gulf Coast University, and faculty contracts, 19–24; Florida Gulf Coast University, and “rolling contracts” instead of tenure, 23; UC Merced, and obstacles faced by new campus, 33–38; El Paso Collaborative for Academic Excellence, 57–62; El Paso’s successful partnership between K–12 and postsecondary education, 60–61; “early colleges” becoming a national trend, 66–67; Rio Salado College, and continued growth, 76; LaGuardia Community College, and steady growth, 83; South Carolina’s performance-based budgeting plan, 141–146; fading interest in performance-based budgeting, 145; Colorado’s voucher program for higher education, 155; Illinois, and rising tuitions and fees, 164–165; Georgia’s HOPE scholarships, and changes to the program, 170; Kentucky higher education reforms, mixed results, 194–195; Florida higher education governance, and the continuing struggle over control, 200–201; Virginia’s higher education restructuring, mixed results, 206–207
- Trotter, Tom, and: transfers from Rio Salado College to Arizona State University, 77
- Troubled Assets Relief Program (TARP), 272
- Trower, C. Ann, and: contract faculty at Florida Gulf Coast University, 23
- “Truth in Tuition”: Illinois’ novel answer to skyrocketing rates (fall 2005) (Susan C. Thomson), 161–166
- Tsu, Hwa, and: Woodrow Wilson teaching fellowships, 71
- tuition: increase at Frank Lloyd Wright School of Architecture, 13; free at Berea College, 15–18; free at Olin College, 25, 28; and substantial increases in California, 2004–05 budget, 35; policy at Western Governors University, 47, 49, 51; and operational costs at WGU Indiana, 52; and financial aid, Pell grants at WGU Indiana, 53; and Utah’s New Century Scholarship program, 67; and Washington’s Running Start program, 68; at CUNY’s community colleges, doubling between 1991 and 2002; in Georgia, and four-year freeze for incoming freshmen 104; at University of Houston, and rebates for credit hours completion, 104; and Tuition Assistance Program at University of New Mexico, 110, 112; and annual increases at Cal State, 124; increase at North Kentucky University, 126; increases at UC and Cal State, 1997 through 2007, 138; and Colorado’s higher education voucher program, 151, 152; and flexibility for Colorado universities, 153–155; increases, and financial aid, 156; and Colorado College Opportunity Fund, 157, 158; and

- Illinois' Truth in Tuition program, four-year freeze for incoming freshmen, 161, 162, 163; increases, and low-income students priced out of college, 164; increases, and declining state support, 165; and Georgia's HOPE scholarship, 167–171; increases in Oregon, and cuts to Opportunity Grant program, 176; and Indiana's 21st Century Scholars program, 177, 178; at Ohio public universities, and years of double-digit increases, 181, 182, 185; increases in Virginia, 187, 188, 190; and foreign students, who pay higher rates, 190; increases in Kentucky, 195, 196; and political maneuvering in Florida, 199–201; increases in Virginia, and higher education restructuring, authority to set rates, 203–208; at University System of Maryland, and political conflict over increases, 209, 211, 212; in Florida, and political conflict over rates and authority to set them, 213, 215; and prepaid contracts in Florida, 215; and rising fees, under California's Master Plan for Higher Education, 218; at New York's public colleges and universities, and state revenue shortfall, 221, 222; and proposal for predictable annual increases, 224; and diminishing state support in Pennsylvania, 225, 226, 228; and top-up fees at British universities, 229–232; and British universities tripling their fees, 233–236; in Ireland, eliminated for undergraduates in 1995, 237; and “registration fee” paid by Irish students, 246; and Obama administration tax credit for, 250; increases, and upsurge in Pell grants, 251; at private-for-profit schools, and Pell grant spending, 252; tax credit at risk in Congress, 256; increases as a consequence of state budget cuts, 272; and public concern about rapid escalation, 317. See also access, affordability
- Tuition Assistance Program, and: University of New Mexico's Graduation Project, 112
- Tuitions and Fees Rising in Illinois: Update* (February 2008) (William Trombley), 164–165
- Tupa, Ron, and: Colorado's voucher program for higher education, 153; (photo), 154
- Twigg, Carol, and: WGU, early hype, 46; Center for Academic Transformation, use of technology in higher education, 89; grants for colleges to redesign large classes, 89; (photo), 90; innovative potential of technology, 90; faculty resistance, 91, 93; expansion of online instruction programs, 92, 93; individualized learning process, 94; Virginia Tech's Math Emporium, 95, 97; redesign efforts in Tennessee, 99, 102
- Two Colliding Trends: A college education is seen as increasingly essential amid falling confidence that qualified and motivated students have the opportunity to go* (chart), 318
- UC Berkeley, 31, 33, 37; and: School of Education, 123; Center for Studies in Higher Education, 135; increase in number of foreign students enrolled at, 190; state budget cuts, fewer faculty hires, 217; student protests and arrests over fee increases, 218; increasing enrollment of out-of-state students, 218; $760 million building boom, 220; hiring consulting firm to find inefficiencies, 220; Clark Kerr, 259; John Sperling, 287, 288, 290; online continuing education for teachers, 293; college application process, 309
- UC Board of Regents, and: planning for UC Merced, 33, 36, 37; naming of Mark Yudof as chancellor, 140; defense of fee increases, 218, 219; firing of Angela Davis, 285
- UC Davis, and: infrastructure improvements, 189; elimination of courses and programs, 217; student protests and arrests over fee increases, 218; controversy over chancellor's salary, 219
- UC Irvine, and: halting admission to doctoral program in education, 217; Clark Kerr, 259
- UC Merced, 33–38; and: questions about necessity of the campus, 137; calls for campus to be closed, 220
- UC San Diego, and: high college ranking, 217; open letter from Mark Yudof, 219; department chairs calling for UC Merced to be closed, 220; Clark Kerr, 259
- UC San Francisco, 33; and: controversy over new chancellor's salary, 219
- UC Santa Cruz, and: interdisciplinary approach, 35; challenges of establishing a new campus, 37; course cancellations due to budget cuts, 217; student protests and arrests over fee increases, 218; Clark Kerr, 259
- UC Santa Barbara, 118
- UCLA, and: selectivity in enrollment, 37; high six-year graduation rate, 112; faculty salaries, 202; high college ranking, 217; course reductions, rising class sizes, due to budget cuts, 217; student protests and arrests over fee increases, 218
- UK Adopts “Top-Up” Tuition Fees: British Universities prepare to compete in a more “American” system* (summer 2004) (Jon Marcus), 229–232
- United Faculty of Florida (UFF), and: opposition to plan to impose multi-year contracts, 22; timidity of Florida Board of Governors, 200
- United Professional and Technical Employees, and: ad campaign criticizing bonuses and perks paid to UC administrators, 219
- United University Professions, 222
- Universities and Colleges Admissions Service, and: effort to convince British students of the value of higher education, 232
- University College Cork, and: faculty hired by UCD, 239; National University of Ireland, 240; collaboration with Trinity College, 241; top-500 ranking in Times Higher Education magazine, 246
- University College Dublin (UCD), and: shift in Irish higher education, emphasis on research, 239; collaboration with other institutions, 240; medical research projects, 241; new construction, 241, 244; underprepared students, 246; rise in college rankings, 246; controversial bonuses paid to top administrators, 248
- University College London, and: increasing proportion of graduate students, 232
- University of Akron, and: Woodrow Wilson Teaching Fellowship program, 72; collaboration with other universities, 184
- University of Alabama, and: successful online math program, 93; similarity to Virginia Tech's math program, 95, 98; Donald Miller, 193; Education Policy Center at, 252
- University of Baltimore, 210, 211; and: successful online programs, 292
- University of Buffalo (SUNY), and: quest to become nationally ranked research university, 223
- University of California (UC system), and: reduced state support, 33, 35; UC Merced, 36–38; California's Central Valley region, 36; student fees, 37; doctoral degrees at Cal State, 123; executive compensation scandals, 136; “constitutional autonomy,” 136; response to prohibition of affirmative action, 139; budget cuts, unpaid furloughs, 217; overenrollment, 218; increasing educational fees, 218; faculty concerns about future of the system, 219; faculty opposition to UC Merced, 220; Clark Kerr, 259; high quality of basic research at, 260; accreditation of high schools in early 20th century, 264; plans to reduce number of entering undergraduates, 272; See also UC
- University of California, Merced: Update* (June 2008) (William Trombley), 36–37
- University of Central Florida (UCF), and: use of technology in redesigning large classes, 89; biosciences building, new medical school, 197; Board of Governors, 200; tuition increases, 200; large construction projects, 202; Board of Governors approval for new medical school, 215
- University of Chicago, 117, 313
- University of Cincinnati, and: Woodrow Wilson Teaching Fellowship program, 72, collaboration with North Kentucky University, 127; pressure to eliminate low-ranked doctoral program in history, 182; Nancy Zimpher, 205

University of Colorado at Boulder (CU-Boulder), and: tuition increase, higher education voucher program, 153–155; fees at Association of American Universities members, 156; effect of voucher program on students, 158, 159; inadequate state funding for higher-cost programs, 159; Ward Churchill, 276

University of Colorado system (CU), and: state role and mission grants, 153; increased financial aid, 154; 155; aggressive pursuit of federal research dollars, 156; enrollment increase, drop in general fund support, 156; Health Sciences Center in Denver, 159; insufficient state stipend money, 160; Ward Churchill, 276, 285

University of Colorado's School of Public Affairs, 157

University of Denver, and: proposal to eliminate state aid to students at Colorado's private institutions, 154

University of Florida, 22; and: Community College Futures Assembly, 101; response to higher education reform in Florida, 198; national ranking, 198; differential tuition increases at state's largest campuses, 200; faculty cuts, 201; loss of political clout following decentralization, 202; cut to size of freshman class, declining percentage of black students, 213; premium tuition increase, 215; Bright Futures scholarships, 298

University of Georgia (UGA), and: gender balance, male enrollment, 118; HOPE scholarship, 168, 169, 171

University of Hawaii, and: strategic sourcing among institutions, 190

University of Houston, and: tuition rebates, 104

University of Idaho, and: online instruction in large classes, 95; Monte Boisen, 98

University of Illinois, 5; and: acceptance of Truth in Tuition plan, 161, 165; high-tuition/high-aid policy, 164

University of Illinois at Chicago, 162; and: additional tuition surcharge, plus sharp increases in mandatory fees, 164

University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, 161; and: four-year tuition plan, 162, 163; additional tuition surcharge, plus mandatory fees, 164

University of Indianapolis, and: Woodrow Wilson Teaching Fellowship program, 70–72

University of Kentucky (UK); and: ambitious plan to become a top-20 public research university, 126, 195; North Kentucky University, 128; Research Challenge Trust Fund (Bucks for Brains), 191; successive years of budget cuts, 192, 195; Kentucky Community and Technical College System, 194; faculty layoffs, project postponements, 195

University of Limerick, 246

University of Louisiana at Monroe, and: reduced work week, 189

University of Louisville, and: duplication of programs, 127; dual engineering program with North Kentucky University, 128; Research Challenge Trust Fund (Bucks for Brains), 191; offering Ph.D.s, 192; emphasis on the health sciences, 193; state funding to increase research capabilities, 195

University of Manchester, and: student protests over fee increases at British universities, 233, 234, 236

University of Maryland, Baltimore (UM-Baltimore), and: creation of centralized university system, 211

University of Maryland, Baltimore County, and: faculty workload, "effectiveness and efficiency" effort, 210; creation of centralized university system, 211

University of Maryland, College Park, and: faculty workload, "effectiveness and efficiency" effort, 210; creation of centralized university system, 211

University of Maryland, Eastern Shore, and: creation of centralized university system, 211

University of Maryland, University College, 210

University of Massachusetts, and: UmassOnline, 293

University of Massachusetts, Amherst, 276

University of Memphis, and: performance-based budgeting, development of mission statements, 148

University of Miami, 214; and: medical school at, 215

University of Michigan, 27; and: Woodrow Wilson Teaching Fellowship program, 72; faculty salaries, 193; use of online courses to accelerate workforce development, Michigan Virtual University, 291; 298

University of Minnesota Rochester (UMR), 39–43

University of Nebraska, and: case of Waskar Ari, academic freedom, 277

University of New Mexico (UNM), and: contract with WGU, 47; Graduation Project, 109–113

University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill (UNC-Chapel Hill), 103, 108

University of North Carolina system (UNC), and: retention rates, graduation rates, 103, 104, 107

University of Northern Colorado, and: College Opportunity Fund, 157

University of Pennsylvania, and: cost of attending, 169; Institute for Research on Higher Education, 250; cohort model, fixed curricular pathway, 303; 313

University of Phoenix, and: Rio Salado College, 75; opposition to four-year degrees at community colleges, 77; 113; British for-profit BPP, Apollo Group, 236; money spent on federal lobbying, 253; John Sperling, 287, 288; "copycat" programs, 289; targeting mid-career professionals, 291, 292

University of Pittsburgh, and: state appropriations, 225

University of South Carolina, and: escapades of James B. Holderman, 142; abandonment of performance-based budgeting, 145; startup costs for performance-based budgeting, 146

University of South Carolina at Lancaster, and: high rating from the Commission on Higher Education, 143; Susan Pauly, gathering "employer feedback" on graduates, 144

University of South Florida, and: confusion over accreditation of Florida Gulf Coast University, 22; tenure-track faculty who transferred to FGCU, 23; Alzheimer's research center, 198; differential tuition increases allowed, 200; enrollment freeze, 213; suspension of Sami al-Arian, academic freedom, 276

University of Tennessee at Knoxville (UT Knoxville), and: performance-based funding, campus mission statements, 148, 149

University of Tennessee, and: independence from Tennessee Board of Regents, 99; performance-based funding, 147; support of Governor Bill Haslam, 150

University of Texas-El Paso, and: El Paso Collaborative for Academic Excellence, 57, 60; President Diana S. Natalicio, 58, 62; faculty resistance to the collaborative, 61, 62; emphasis on teacher training, local schools, 62

University of Toledo, 182

University of Virginia (UVA); and: Center for the Study of Higher Education at, 47; six-year graduation rate, 111; Curry School of Education at, 162; 188; construction on campus, 189; proposed charter status, freedom to raise tuition, 203; state directives to institutions based on workforce needs, 204; autonomy under state's higher education restructuring, 205; large endowment, financial clout, 206; tuition increases, 208

University of Washington, 254, 278, 293

University of West Florida, 197, 202

University of Wisconsin, 291

University of Wisconsin-Madison, and: Center for Academic Transformation grant, 89

University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh, and: graduation project, 112

University System of Maryland (USM), and: William "Brit" Kirwan, 183; "effectiveness and efficiency" campaign, 209, 212; increased faculty teaching load, 210; agreement to increase enrollment, 211; effort to decrease debt among lowest-income students, 211

- University System of Ohio, and: collaboration among Ohio's universities, 181; Governor Ted Strickland, executive order creating the system, 212
- An Unknown Quantity: Olin College students, faculty and administrators create an innovative new university from scratch* (spring 2002) (Jon Marcus), 25–31
- U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, and: Florida Gulf Coast University, 19; University of California, 33; “clean water” permit for UC Merced, 36
- U.S. Department of Education. See Department of Education, U.S.
- U.S. Department of Homeland Security, and: case of Waskar Ari, academic freedom, 277
- U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, and: Florida Gulf Coast University, 19, 36
- U.S. News & World Report*, annual college rankings, and: Berea College, 16; University of Georgia, 168; University System of Maryland, 211
- U.S. Open University, 77
- U.S. Supreme Court, and: ruling on state voucher programs, 152
- USA PATRIOT Act, and: Senator Russ Feingold's vote against, 275; Ohio General Assembly, 278; effect on research, 279; Business Records provision, 279
- USC (University of Southern California), 29, 260
- Utah Partnership Foundation, and: establishment of early colleges in Utah, 67
- Van Dyke, Jim, and: Rio Salado College, 73; assigning college credit to existing programs, 74; use of sales terminology, 75; (photo), 75
- Vandal, Bruce, and: customized approach to developmental courses, 100
- Vander Ark, Tom, and: Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, early colleges, 67, 68; (photo), 68
- Vanderbilt University, 29, 193
- Vasquez, Freddie, and: El Paso Collaborative for Academic Excellence, 57
- Vedder, Richard, and: presidential salaries, increase in non-teaching staff, 188; intercollegiate athletics, 189; efficient use of facilities, productivity of faculty, 189
- Vesper, Nick, and: State Student Assistance Commission, Indiana, 178
- Vetting, Matthew, and: Virginia Tech's Math Emporium, 96
- Vincennes University, and: Alison Barber, 54; cooperative arrangement with Ivy Tech, 180
- Virginia Commonwealth University (VCU), and: three-tiered system for Virginia institutions, 205; smaller endowment, lower-income students, than at UVA, 206; designation as Level III school, 206; John Bennett, 207
- The Virginia Plan: State's community colleges confront the need to do more with less* (December 2010) (Robert A. Jones), 85–88
- Virginia Polytechnic Institute and University. See Virginia Tech
- Virginia Tech, and: use of technology in redesign of linear algebra course, 93; individualized learning process, 94; Math Emporium, 95–98; proposed charter status, freedom to raise tuition, 203; autonomy under state's higher education restructuring, 205, 206; designation as Level III school, 206
- Virginia Tries Restructuring: Financial stress leads to new arrangements between state and campuses* (summer 2005) (Robert A. Jones), 203–208
- Virginia's community college system, 85–88
- Virginia's Restructuring Is a “Work in Progress”*: Update (April 2008) (William Trombley), 206–207
- Vivona, Joseph, 209
- vocational training: at LaGuardia Community College, nursing programs, 83; and expanded programs at Virginia community colleges, 85; at East Carolina University, 106; and eligibility of students for Colorado's College Opportunity Fund, 159; at Ivy Tech Community College of Indiana, 177; and the Ohio Skills Bank, regional workforce initiative, 184; and Obama administration's “gainful-employment” rule, 252, 253
- Volcker, Paul, and: monetary policy, 271
- Votruba, James, (photo), 125; and: North Kentucky University as a lynchpin of regional economic development, 125, 127; AASCU task force on public engagement, 126; institutional pursuit of prestige, 127; community engagement strategy, 128, 194; future of the Kentucky postsecondary reform movement, 195; creative use of limited funds, 196
- W.K. Kellogg Foundation, and: funding for early colleges, 68; funding for Woodrow Wilson Teaching Fellowship program, 72
- Wade, John, and: University of Minnesota Rochester, 41
- Walker, Tony, and: Frank Lloyd Wright School of Architecture, 9
- Walton, Kathi, and: Woodrow Wilson teaching fellowships, 71
- Wang, Xiaoping, and: redesigning developmental courses, 100; (photo), 101
- Ward, Caitlin, and: Ivy Tech, 180
- Ward, David, and: Charles Reed, 122
- Ward, Sandy, and: WGU Indiana, 55
- Warner, Mark, and: Virginia legislation reconfiguring the relationship between campuses and state, 203; (photo), 204; management agreements, 204; coalition with Republican leadership in legislature, 205; concept of “base adequacy,” 206; predicting a favorable outcome for the institutions and the state, 208
- Washington Post*, 253, 321
- Washington Post Company, owner of Kaplan, and: money spent on federal lobbying, 253
- Washington State University, 98
- Waterous, Frank, (photo), 157; and: skepticism about Colorado's higher education funding plan, 157; increasing the stipend for students, 159; future funding discussions, 160
- Way, Barbara J., and: course redesign at Cal Poly Pomona, 90, 91; (photo), 91
- Wayne State University, and: Woodrow Wilson Teaching Fellowship program, 72; Jack Kay, 113
- Weaver, Scott (photography), 57–62
- Webb, Michael, and: Early College Initiative, 66, 67
- Weils, Gail W. (photo), 126; community engagement at North Kentucky University, 127
- Weiner, Steve, and: California, lack of leadership for education, 136; Campaign for College Opportunity, 140
- Weisbuch, Robert, 67
- Welch, Peggy, and: questions about establishment of WGU Indiana, 55
- Wellman, Jane, and: tracking savings from online education, 90; decreasing resistance to educational technology, 93; shrinking state appropriations per student, 226
- Welsh, Marcia G., (photo), 141; and: time and cost of instituting performance-based budgeting in South Carolina, 146
- Wendler, Walter V., (photo), 162; and: opposition to Illinois' Truth in Tuition law, 162
- The West Virginia Experience: Creating a sustainable public agenda for higher education* (May 2011) (Brian Noland), 305–307
- West Virginia Higher Education Policy Commission, 305
- West Virginia University, and: investment in applied science and research, 307
- Western Association of Schools and Colleges, 136
- Western Cooperative for Educational Telecommunications, 75
- Western Governors University (WGU), 45–50; WGU Indiana, 51–55

- Western Governors University: Update* (July 2008) (Todd Sallo), 48–49
- Western Illinois University, and: four-year tuition freeze for incoming freshmen, 104, 161, 162
- Western Interstate Commission for Higher Education, (WICHE), and: David Longanecker, 46, 76, 136, 151, 155; declining education level of Californians, 135; underfunding of California colleges, 138; commissioned study of Colorado's higher education voucher program, 155; Don Carlson, 156; Brian Prescott, 174
- Western Kentucky University, and: duplication of programs at nearby institutions, 127; increase in student fees to pay for football budget, 128; interest in offering doctorates in education, 192; cooperation among Kentucky's public campuses, 195
- Western Michigan University, and: Woodrow Wilson Teaching Fellowship program, 72; Judy Bailey, 106
- Western Oregon University (WOU), Oregon Opportunity Grant program, 174
- Western State College of Colorado, and: state grants to rural campuses, 153
- Wetherell, T.K., (photo), 213; and: budget cuts, staff reductions, increased teaching load, at Florida State University, 213; consequences of political expediency, 214; proposal to increase tuition, 215; concerns about articulation agreements between universities and community colleges, 216
- WGU. See Western Governors University
- Where the Boys Aren't: For young males, the drift away from academic achievement is a trend* (spring 2005) (Robert A. Jones), 115–119
- White House Summit on Community Colleges, 249, 252, 255
- White, Tiffany, and: redesigned math program at Tennessee's Cleveland State Community College, 99; (photo), 100
- Whiteside, Carol, and: UC Merced, economic spin-offs from research at, 38
- Wilcockson, Mark, and: retaining students whose tuition guarantees have expired, 162; raising guaranteed tuition rates at Northeastern Illinois University, 164; flat state appropriations, public universities' share of costs, 165; (photo), 166
- Wildasin, David, 193
- Wilde, Oscar, and: Trinity College, 239
- Wiley, Aaron "Jack," and: Colorado's College Opportunity Fund, 157; (photo), 158
- Willetts, David, (photo), 234; and: higher education as a personal benefit, 234; replacing teaching grants with fees and loans, 236
- William and Flora Hewlett Foundation, 140
- William and Mary. See College of William and Mary
- Williams, Asia, 215
- Williams, Mike, and: Virginia Tech's Math Emporium, 97; (photo), 98; Comparing costs of traditional classroom teaching and computer-based classes, 98
- Williams, Robert, (photo), 131; and: Rightsizing with Technology initiative, Metropolitan State College of Denver, 131
- Wilson, Jack M., and: online programs displacing most professional graduate programs, 293
- Wilson, Keith, (photo), 127; and: Northern Kentucky University, 128
- Wimberly, Michol, 215, 216
- Winchell, Walter, and: Joseph McCarthy, 277
- Wisconsin Technical College System, and: establishment of a collaborative online presence, 291
- Witham, Carol, and: UC Merced campus, environmental criticism, 36
- Witkowski, Kathy, on: St. John's College, 3–8; Frank Lloyd Wright School of Architecture, 9–14; University of Minnesota Rochester, and interdisciplinary approach to higher education, 39–43; Western Governors University, 45–50; WGU Indiana, 51–55; Allison Barber, chancellor of WGU Indiana (sidebar), 54; Charles B. Reed, Cal State chancellor, 121–124; Metropolitan State College of Denver, and federal stimulus funding, 129–132; Oregon Opportunity Grants, and economic downturn, 173–176; Derek Bok (interview), 281–283
- Woda, Susan, and: University System of Maryland's "effectiveness and efficiency" campaign, 209; (photo), 211
- Wofford, Gail, and: Berea College, 16
- Wolf, David, and: Campaign for College Opportunity, 140
- Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation, and: establishment of early colleges, 67; new teacher education program, 69–72
- Woodruff, Diane, and: Basic Skills Initiative, California Community Colleges, 139
- Woodson, Jamie, (photo), 147; and: performance-based funding, Complete College Tennessee Act, 150
- The World's Community College: Diversity in action at LaGuardia* (spring 2002) (Ron Feemster), 79–84
- Wright, David, and: implementation of Complete College Tennessee Act, 148
- Wright, Frank Lloyd, 9–14
- Wright, Jeff, and: establishment of UC Merced, 34; effort to increase retention rate at engineering school, 35
- Wright, Olgivanna, 10, 13
- Wulf, William, and: Olin College governing board, 27
- Wyatt, John, and: resignation as dean of Frank Lloyd Wright School of Architecture, 12
- Wyrick, Karen, (photo), 99; and: failure of the lecture method of teaching, 99; instructional videos, math course redesign at Cleveland State College in Tennessee, 101, 102
- Wyse, Duncan, and: Oregon Business Council, research on Oregon's Shared Responsibility Model, 176
- Yale University, 232, 309
- Yates, Al, and: tuition flexibility for Colorado universities, 153; reservations about Colorado's higher education voucher program, 154; tracking low-income students into the community colleges, 155; (photo), 156
- York, E.T., and: Florida higher education governance, 99, 100
- Younce, Teresa, and: improved access to bachelor's degree programs in Kentucky, 191, 196; (photo), 192
- Young, Janet, and: UC Merced, 36
- Yudof, Mark, and: naming as UC president, 140; reduction in state allocations to California's universities, 218; controversy over perks and bonuses paid to administrators, 219; defense of huge fee hikes, 219; faculty letter calling for closure of UC Merced, 220; policy paper calling for more federal support for public higher education, 220
- Zemsky, Robert, and: setting standards for higher education, 250; (photo), 255; diverting Pell grant funds to middle schools, 256; on: costs, graduation rates and the importance of rethinking the undergraduate curriculum, 301–303
- Zimmerman, Matt, and: Rio Salado College, online science labs, 75
- Zimpher, Nancy, and: appointment as chancellor of SUNY, 223; (photo), 224; proposed system of tuition increases and budgets, 224
- Zingg, Paul, and: Charles Reed, 123, 124
- Zumeta, William, and: institutional autonomy, 254; keeping President Obama's higher education strategy on track, 255
- Zwick, Rebecca, and: tactics for achieving gender balance in enrollment, 118; misuse of high-stakes tests, 298